

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, Wednesday, 8 November 2017

Nexity has been informed that New Port, through an independent investment services company, has sold 183,820 Nexity shares, bringing back its shareholding in Nexity at 6.36% of the share capital compared to 6.69% before the share disposal.

The transaction was aimed at partially amortising New Port's acquisition debt, with an objective of sound financial management.

Nexity has also been informed that New Port, Crédit Mutuel Arkéa, and 177 Nexity key managers and employees acting in concert, hold, following this operation, 17.87% of Nexity's share capital.

New Port confirms its objective to hold Nexity shares over a medium-to-long-term horizon.
