2017 Investor Day

VINCI is holding an Investor Day at Lyon Saint-Exupéry Airport today with the focus on VINCI Concessions.

The objective of this thematic day is to present to financial analysts and investors the recent changes in VINCI Concessions, the business line that groups together the activities of VINCI Airports, VINCI Highways and VINCI Railways.. The following subjects will be addressed on this occasion: the business line's organisation, growth strategy, portfolio of infrastructure assets and vision of the outlook of its markets.

VINCI Concessions' activities are central to the VINCI Group's growth and international expansion strategy. In just a few years of strong growth, the business line has become a major contributor to VINCI's results and value creation potential.
