GROUPE RENAULT COMMUNICATION

Boulogne-Billancourt, November 20, 2018 – Groupe Renault, which acknowledges the first statement from the Tokyo District Public Prosecutor Office in connection with the judicial proceedings regarding Mr. Carlos Ghosn, is fully engaged and monitors carefully the development of the situation.

Thierry Bolloré, Chief Operating Officer Groupe Renault, is specifically in charge of the continuity of the Executive Committee of Groupe Renault, in permanent contact with the Board of Directors of Groupe Renault, the Lead Independent Director and the Committees of the Board. All corporate governance procedures are fully functional, allowing Groupe Renault to pursue the normal course of its industrial and commercial operations.

Groupe Renault ensures on a daily basis the efficiency of its partnerships within the framework of the Alliance and is particularly focused on the consolidation of the Renault Nissan Mitsubishi Alliance.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of Renault will be held this evening.

About Groupe Renault

Groupe Renault has been making cars since 1898. Today it is an international, multi-brand group combining the Renault, Dacia and Renault Samsung Motors, Alpine and LADA brands. In 2017, it sold close to 3.76 million vehicles through 12,700 outlets in 134 countries. Groupe Renault employs more than 180,000 people and operates 36 manufacturing facilities worldwide. To address the major technological challenges of the future and pursue profitable growth, Renault focuses on international development. It is harnessing complementary coverage across its five brands; electric vehicles; and its unique alliance with Nissan and Mitsubishi. With its Formula 1 team, Renault is active in motorsport as a powerful force behind innovation, image and brand recognition.
