

Sercel Acquires Quest Geo

Paris, December 15, 2008

CGGVeritas (ISIN: 0000120164 – NYSE: CGV) announced today that its subsidiary Sercel has entered into a private transaction to purchase all existing shares in Quest Geo Solutions Limited (“Quest”), a UK-based software company, for a cash consideration.

The acquisition continues to broaden Sercel’s product offering and comes as a logical extension to the existing partnership between the two companies, whereby Sercel distributes Quest navigation software such as Triggerfish and Geometis. It also provides Sercel with increased development and support resources for its navigation software division and its newly released SeaPro Nav product.
