Maurel & Prom entrusts its financial communication to Influences

Since January 1st 2009, Maurel & Prom called upon the services of Influences, a PR agency headed by Catherine Durand Meddahi, to implement its financial communication.

Attached to the head of the Financial Communication Group, the agency Influences will ensure the implementation of actions for financial communication of Maurel & Prom. The agency will manage first and foremost actions related to legal obligations of the company (Results, General Meetings, ...).

As part of its consulting business, Influences will set up all the means to promote a greater visibility and a better coverage of the company's among financial market players (analysts / investors, journalists and individual shareholders).

Maurel & Prom strengthens its capacity to organize a comprehensive communication, based on the relevance contents, in line with the expectations of increasingly sophisticated audiences.
