

TELECOM RESEAUX SERVICES

Communiqué de presse

Télécom Réseaux Services is continuing its strategic development

Paris, 10 March 2009

Télécom Réseaux Services today announced that it has reached an agreement with the ATTI company with a shared view to complete the envisaged alliance between the two companies by 31 March 2009.

ATTI is a strategic partner for Aastra France and is certified "Gold Partner" and also "Technical Assistance Center". Aastra is an European leader in the ToIP convergence market and ranks 2nd in France with an estimated market share of 35%.

ATTI's expertise covers the entire Aastra product portfolio in France, bringing its solutions and services, to every kind of business, in the domain of IP PBX and convergence systems.

Télécom Réseaux Services would benefit significantly from ATTI's activities in its strategy of developing its own expertise in the Unified Communication market. In addition, Télécom Réseaux Services' geographical coverage would be clearly enhanced by ATTI's nation-wide presence.

Télécom Réseaux Services would acquire ATTI in cash. This acquisition would be integrated in the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended 31 March 2009. In its financial year ended 31 December 2008, ATTI generated revenue of 5.1 m with a good level of profitability.
