

Greg Richart appointed to the position of Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of Euro Disney S.A.S.

(Marne-la-Vallée, May 22, 2009) – Euro Disney S.C.A. announced today that Greg Richart has been appointed to the position of Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of Euro Disney S.A.S., the management company of Euro Disney S.C.A.. He will replace Ignace Lahoud who has been appointed Chief Financial Officer of The Walt Disney Company Europe, Middle East and Africa, effective today. In order to ensure a smooth transition Ignace will continue to exercise his duties as Chief Financial Officer for Euro Disney S.A.S. until July 31, 2009, the date at which Greg’s appointment will become effective.

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank Ignace for his significant contributions to the growth and progress of Disneyland Paris’ business through key strategic and financial initiatives”, Philippe Gas, CEO of Euro Disney S.A.S. said.

Greg joined Disneyland Paris at the beginning of 2007 as Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer and has been leading the teams in Controllershship, Corporate Reporting, Taxation, and Internal Audit. Prior to this post, Greg joined in 2003 the Transaction Support department at The Walt Disney Company in Burbank. There he was responsible for providing accounting and analytical support to business units of the company that were considering mergers and acquisitions or emerging business opportunities, as well as monitoring and overseeing the implementation of new accounting and reporting requirements. Before working at The Walt Disney Company, he began his career in 1996 within the Audit Department of Arthur Andersen in Los Angeles.

“Greg’s experience within Disney and his knowledge and expertise of Euro Disney make him a natural choice for this role and a tremendous asset for our Company. I am very pleased this change in executive responsibilities is an opportunity for our Company to promote one of its own talents, while ensuring continuation of our growth strategy”, Gas said.

Greg Richart graduated from the University of Illinois with a BS in Accounting and from UCLA’s Anderson School of Management with an MBA.
