Pathé has informed Chargeurs that following the block sale of 734,035 Chargeurs shares today, its holding in Chargeurs has fallen below the threshold of 10% of the capital and voting rights. Pathé now owns one million shares and the same number of voting rights, corresponding to 7.75% of Chargeurs capital and 7.70% of the theoretical voting rights.

As a result, the combined interest of the concert group comprising Pathé, Jérôme Seydoux, Eduardo Malone and the companies they control has fallen below the disclosure threshold of 15% of the capital and voting rights. The concert group now owns 1,704,699 Chargeurs shares and 1,717,040 voting rights, corresponding to 13.21% of the capital and 13.22% of the theoretical voting rights.

The transaction was carried out by Pathé through a total return swap similar to the one set up in December 2010.
