Pierre Boisselier

appointed Director of Treasury, Financing and Credit Management

Pierre Boisselier is appointed Director of Treasury, Financing and Credit Management. He will report to Sophie Stabile, Global Chief Financial Officer of Accor.

He takes over Dominique Expert, who left Accor last June 30 after 33 years spent within the Accor Finance Department.

After graduating from ISG Business School in France, Pierre Boisselier joined the bank Société Générale in the Energy division in 1994. He was in charge of the multicurrency treasury. In 2000 he moved to Arcelor Mittal Group as Deputy Group Treasurer. Between 2008 and 2012, Pierre was International Treasurer at Publicis.

He joined Accor in December 2012, as Deputy Director of Treasury, Financing and Credit Management.

"I want to express my warmest thanks to Dominique Expert, for her total commitment during more than 30 years at Accor, during which her input on all treasury and financing operations widely contributed to build our credibility, notably towards the banking community and its largest representatives. Looking forward, Pierre Boisselier's strong expertise will bring new skills to Accor, and will guarantee continued excellence on Treasury", Sophie Stabile said.
