EURAZEO JOINS THE EURONEXT VIGEO EUROZONE 120 INDEX AND KEEPS ITS PLACE IN THE ETHIBEL SUSTAINABILITY INDEX EXCELLENCE EUROPE

The Eurazeo share's has been reconfirmed as a constituent of the Ethibel Sustainability Index Excellence Europe since April 15, 2016 and it will join the Euronext Vigeo Eurozone 120 from June 1, 2016.

Eurazeo's inclusion in these two indices follows the assessment of its CSR performance by the Vigeo rating agency, the leading European expert in the analysis and rating of organizations with regard to their approach, practices and performance on environmental, social and governance issues.

The Ethibel Sustainability Index Excellence Europe and the Euronext Vigeo Eurozone 120 index are benchmark indices in Europe for investors looking to make a commitment to corporate social responsibility. The first index comprises the 200 highest-ranking European companies as evaluated by the agency in terms of their corporate responsibility performance, while the second index comprises the 120 most advanced listed companies in the Eurozone based on over 300 ESG (environment, social, governance) indicators.

Eurazeo's inclusion in these indices rewards both its commitment to corporate responsibility and its performance and the progress approach launched several years ago. A pioneer in its activity sector, the company's first comprehensive assessment of the environmental impacts of its portfolio dates from 2008. Since then it has constantly broadened and deepened its approach, with the drafting of a CSR strategy backed by quantified objectives for 2020 and the publication, more recently, of a study demonstrating savings generated by the progress plans implemented in its investments.

Sophie Flak, CSR Director, declared:

"We have always viewed CSR as a powerful driver of value creation, for both Eurazeo and its portfolio companies. We are pleased to have kept our place in the Ethibel Sustainability Index Excellence Europe and to join the Euronext Vigeo Eurozone 120 index. We are also extremely proud to be the only investment company represented in these indices, alongside major companies at the cutting edge of CSR issues. These announcements reward the efforts of our teams and our investments and encourage us, each year, to go even further in our commitment."
