COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

EuropaCorp has entered into exclusive negotiations with the Cinémas Gaumont-Pathé in view of the sale of its multiplex activities

Saint-Denis, 30 September 2016 – EuropaCorp, one of the leading independent film studios in Europe, announces today that it has entered into exclusive negotiations with the Cinémas Gaumont-Pathé group for the sale of its Aéroville multiplex activity in Tremblay-en-France and the La Joliette multiplex project in Marseille.

In 2013, EuropaCorp launched a new-generation cinema management activity in France, combining cutting-edge technologies with optimal comfort by offering a full immersion experience to the public. Based on this concept, EuropaCorp launched two multiplex projects, one in the Aéroville mall in Tremblay-en-France, opened on 15 November 2013, and the other currently under development in the La Joliette urban development zone in Marseille.

Today EuropaCorp is refocusing on its core business activities, which are the production and distribution of films and TV series around the world. As part of this strategy, EuropaCorp plans to sell its multiplex business to the Cinémas Gaumont-Pathé group, the largest cinema operator in France and a major player in Europe.
