

Justine Culioli joins Affine as Deputy Director of Acquisitions and Development

Justine Culioli joins Affine as Deputy Director of Acquisitions and Development.

Justine Culioli (33 years old), who is a graduate of the Ecole Centrale de Paris, had her first experience in Project Management of various key projects at Bouygues Construction. She was involved, for example in the renovation of the Royal Monceau Hotel and the Vincennes Zoo. Lately, she spent six years working for the property company SFL where she was in charge of development and flagship projects. While at SFL, Justine managed major construction and refurbishment projects, such as IN OUT in Boulogne Billancourt, #Cloud.Paris and the Louvre St Honoré in Paris.

Justine is also auditor of the Palladio Institute.

This appointment is part of Affine's repositioning strategy in the acquisition and development of new buildings and portfolio refurbishment projects in Paris Métropole and large French cities.
