Coronavirus, impact on turnover

The business levels of our subsidiaries selling consumer products remained very strong in October, with an increase of 18%. On the other hand, sales of products for professionals (76% of consolidated sales) fell by 1% on a like-for-like basis. Consolidated turnover increased overall by 3.1% on a like-for-like basis.

We see this as a very decent outcome, especially considering that October 2020 had one less working day compared to 2019.

We will come back to you on November 23 at 6 p.m. to briefly describe the impact of the current lockdown on our turnover for the first two weeks of November.
