

ICADE SANTÉ ACQUIRES NURSING HOME FROM KOS, ITALY'S LEADING LONG-TERM CARE OPERATOR

Pursuant to a preliminary agreement signed in December 2019, Icade Santé¹ closed the acquisition of a nursing home in Grosseto in the Tuscany region on September 16, 2021 following the facility's completion and its having obtained the required operating permits.

This brand new 6,250-sq.m facility with 120 beds has been leased by the Italian operator KOS for a 15-year term with no break option. The investment amounts to €11 million. The building is aiming for LEED certification.

Specialised in elderly care, in addition to rehabilitation and psychiatric care, the Italian KOS Group currently operates over 140 facilities (more than 13,000 beds) in Europe. It is Italy's leading operator in this segment.
