Peugeot Invest appoints Sébastien Coquard as Deputy CEO and CIO

Peugeot Invest announces it has appointed Sébastien Coquard as Deputy CEO and Chief Investment Officer. Together with Bertrand Finet, Chief Executive Officer of Peugeot Invest, he will be actively involved in strategic decisions and will continue to lead and arbitrate the company's investment decisions.

Throughout his career, Sébastien Coquard has acquired solid expertise in investment strategy, finance and leadership.

He holds a Master's degree in management from the University of Paris-Dauphine and a Postgraduate degree from the IAE in Grenoble. He started his career in structured finance at Paribas and then in M&A at Oddo. He then joined the AGF group (Allianz France) in the long-term investment department.

Bertrand Finet, Chief Executive Officer of Peugeot Invest, commented: “Since joining Peugeot Invest in 2006, Sébastien has made a significant contribution to the growth of the company, implementing its strategy and strengthening the investment team, which will grow to 17 people by this summer.”
