

Deezer and Orange renew successful long-term partnership for continued profitable growth in France

Maintaining over a decade of fruitful collaboration, the two companies will continue to bring music to life for French people

Paris, July 20, 2023 – Deezer (Euronext: DEEZR), the global music streaming service, and Orange (Euronext: ORA), France’s largest telecom provider, are renewing their long-standing partnership. Since 2010, Orange customers have benefited from access to Deezer’s pioneering music streaming experience, which now includes a catalog of 90+ million tracks and unique features such as Flow, SongCatcher and music quizzes.

“We’re delighted to continue our successful journey with Orange after collaborating for more than 10 years on the French market,” said Stéphane Rougeot, Deputy CEO and CFO “Together we have built a winning business relationship, delivering a first-class streaming experience to hundreds of thousands of music fans across the country. With a common approach to innovation and business excellence, we will continue to grow together in the years to come.”

“The music streaming experience from Deezer is highly appreciated by our customers and it is a core part of Orange’s ambition to bring to people the best in digital content. We look forward to carrying on our collaboration in the years to come,” says Laetitia Orsini, EVP Consumer Business Orange France.

In the coming years, Deezer will bring music to life for millions of Orange customers, with personalized and meaningful experiences on the platform. Celebrating the renewal, Deezer and Orange are launching a special offer available between June 1st and August 16, offering 6 months of Deezer Premium for free to new customers subscribing to a “Plus que forfait” plan.
