Deezer teams up with France Billet for its in-app concert discovery

The new partnership gives user easy access to thousands of events through France Billet's ticketing system

Paris, 2023-12-07 – Deezer (Paris Euronext: DEEZR), one of the world's largest music experiences platforms, is partnering with France Billet, the French leader in ticketing which operates Fnacspectacles.com, among other services. Through Deezer's personalized concert recommendations, music fans can easily find upcoming live shows of their favorite artists directly in the app, and buy tickets with a few easy clicks through Fnac Spectacles.

"Our mission at Deezer is to help people live the music to the fullest and by partnering with France Billet, we continue to deliver on this ambition," says Alexandra Leloup, VP, Product, Deezer "Together we're making it easier for music fans to find the latest concerts with their favorite artist, offering accessible ticketing to experiences of a lifetime."

"Through this partnership we are thrilled to put our rich concert catalog & ticketing technology at the service of even more music fans," says Arnaud Averseng, CEO, France Billet. "Working with Deezer is an example of how we are opening up new ways to sell tickets faster and deliver on our mission to help artists and promoters to keep on mediatizing live projects."

With more than 60,000 events offered each year, France Billet is the leading ticketing provider in France and will source the event listings for concerts on Deezer.

Concerts on Deezer

Deezer offers event recommendations, including concerts directly in the app. The recommendations are tailored to listening habits and musical preferences, with the option to filter events by city. With a simple click of the "save" button, users receive notifications of upcoming events from their favorite artists, and tickets can be purchased through third parties such as France Billet. Concerts on Deezer are easily accessed via the Home or the Explore tab, and directly on the artist pages and album pages.
