Remunerations of professional intermediaries:

Société Générale may pay to certain investment services providers or investment financial advisers (each, an "Interested Party") an upfront commission of up to 1% of the amount of Certificates held by such entities' clients and/or an annual remuneration of up to 0.50% of the amount of Certificates held by such entities' clients.

Further information in respect of the above remunerations may be provided by Société Générale to its own clients upon request. If, under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) 2004/39/CE and/or any other laws and regulations, an Interested Party is required to disclose to prospective investors in the Certificates any remuneration that Société Générale pays to, or receives from, such Interested Party in respect of the Certificates, the Interested Party shall be responsible for compliance with such laws and regulations.

The attention of the potential purchasers is drawn to the fact that:

- they must read these Final Terms together with the Base Prospectus, the Supplements, the Document de Référence, the amendment ("rectificatif") and the update referred to above,
- at any time, the Certificate value may be less than the Issue Price and Certificateholders may lose some or all of their investment,

- Certificates are not suitable for all investors. Potential purchasers are advised to make their decision only after having carefully considered, with their advisers, whether the planned investment is appropriate to their requirements and resources.
