

Update regarding Michael Page

Zurich, Switzerland, August 15, 2008: Adecco S.A. (“Adecco”), the worldwide leader in Human Resource services, notes the announcement made this morning by Michael Page International PLC (“Michael Page”) and announces that it is still considering its position regarding a possible offer.

Adecco believes that there is scope for a combination with Michael Page which is to the benefit of both companies and their respective shareholders. Adecco places considerable value on the management and strong culture of Michael Page. It is therefore important to Adecco that it is able to retain the senior management of Michael Page in the event that an offer is completed. Adecco has been unable to engage in satisfactory discussions to gain comfort on this issue.

As Adecco stated in its announcement on August 5, 2008, the company remains focussed on value-based management and considers acquisition targets with financial discipline.

A further announcement to the market will be made when appropriate.

This announcement is not intended to, and does not, constitute or form part of any offer, invitation or the solicitation of an offer to purchase, otherwise acquire, subscribe for, sell or otherwise dispose of, any securities whether pursuant to this announcement or otherwise.

The distribution of this announcement in jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom may be restricted by law and therefore persons into whose possession this announcement comes should inform themselves about, and observe, such restrictions. Any failure to comply with the restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities law of any such jurisdiction.

Dealing Disclosure Requirements:

Under the provisions of Rule 8.3 of the UK Takeover Code (the 'Code'), if any person is, or becomes, 'interested' (directly or indirectly) in 1% or more of any class of 'relevant securities' of Michael Page or Adecco, all 'dealings' in any 'relevant securities' of that company (including by means of an option in respect of, or a derivative referenced to, any such 'relevant securities') must be publicly disclosed by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the London business day following the date of the relevant transaction. This requirement will continue until the date on which the offer becomes, or is declared, unconditional as to acceptances, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn or on which the 'offer period' otherwise ends. If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire an 'interest' in 'relevant securities' of Michael Page or Adecco, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Under the provisions of Rule 8.1 of the Code, all 'dealings' in 'relevant securities' of Michael Page or Adecco by Michael Page or Adecco, or by any of their respective 'associates', must be disclosed by no later than 12.00 noon (London time) on the London business day following the date of the relevant transaction.

A disclosure table, giving details of the companies in whose 'relevant securities' 'dealings' should be disclosed, and the number of such securities in issue, can be found on the Takeover Panel's website at <http://www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk/new/>.

'Interests in securities' arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the price of securities. In particular, a person will be treated as having an 'interest' by virtue of the ownership or control of securities, or by virtue of any option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

Terms in quotation marks are defined in the Code, which can also be found on the Panel's website. If you are in any doubt as to whether or not you are required to disclose a 'dealing' under Rule 8, you should consult the Panel.
