Final Terms

dated October 21, 2008

with respect to the

Base Prospectus

dated October 2, 2008

relating to

Unlimited Turbo Warrants relating to Shares denominated in USD

to be publicly offered in the Republic of France

RISK FACTORS

Prospective purchasers of the TURBO Warrants are advised to read the complete Base Prospectus including the chapter on "Risk Factors" and to seek their own advice (including tax consultants and accountholding bank) before reaching an investment decision.

Potential investors intending to purchase the TURBO Warrants should only purchase the TURBO Warrants if they are able to evaluate the merits and risks of such a purchase and if they are able to sustain the loss of the purchase price and of the transaction costs in connection with the purchase of the TURBO Warrants.

RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE UNLIMITED TURBO WARRANTS

- General

Unlimited TURBO Warrants on shares denominated in USD (the "TURBO Warrants") grant to the holder (the "Warrantholder") the right (the "Option Right") to receive an amount in cash expressed in or converted into Euro, as the case may be, and multiplied with the Ratio by which the reference price of the underlying asset (the share) (the "Underlying Asset") exceeds the Strike Price as determined in the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants on the Valuation Date (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or is exceeded by the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) (the "Cash Settlement Amount"). The Underlying Assets will not be delivered.

The Option Right will expire upon the occurrence of a Knock-out Event (see below "Knock-out Event").

The TURBO Warrants do not entitle the Warrantholders to receive a coupon payment or dividend yield and therefore do not constitute a regular source of income. Possible losses in connection with an investment in the TURBO Warrants can therefore not be compensated by other income from the TURBO Warrants.

- Knock-out Event

TURBO Warrants may be early terminated or may expire worthless at any point in time if the price of the respective asset underlying the TURBO Warrants during the period from the Issue date until the Exercise Date is once equal to or below (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or equal to or above (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) the Knock-out Level applicable for that relevant TURBO Warrant determined in the Terms and Conditions (the "Knock-out Event").

- (a) The TURBO Warrants will expire worthless in case of the occurrence of the Knock-out Event if the Knock-out Level is equal to the Strike Price.

In this case the Knock-out Level is at each time equal to the Strike Price and will be adjusted in the same manner as the Strike Price on each calendar day by the Adjustment Amount.

- (b) If the Knock-out Level is above (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or below (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) the Strike Price of the relevant TURBO Warrant the Warrantholder will receive a Knock-out Amount equal to the fair market value of the TURBO Warrants as determined by the Issuer on the day on which the Knock-out Event occurs. Such Knock-out Amount will in no circumstances exceed the amount expressed in or converted into Euro, as the case may be, and multiplied with the Ratio, if applicable, by which the reference price of the Underlying Asset exceeds the Strike Price on the date of the occurrence of the Knock out Event (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or is exceeded by the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants). The fair market value of the TURBO Warrants and consequently the Knock-out Amount might be zero.

In this case the Knock-out Level, which is above (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or below (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) the Strike Price will be applicable for one Adjustment Period and will be adjusted on the Adjustment Date falling into the respective Adjustment Period in consideration of the prevailing market conditions (specifically in consideration of the volatility of the relevant Underlying Asset). Investors should be aware that the adjustment of the Knock-out Level will be made in the reasonable discretion of the Issuer.

- (c) As opposed to standard warrants where a standard warrant which has lost in value may recover during its lifetime until the Expiration Date, investors in TURBO Warrants with a knock-out feature should be aware that such TURBO Warrants are early terminated or expire worthless, as the case may be, immediately once a Knock-out Event occurs. Consequently, purchasers of TURBO Warrants should be prepared to sustain a substantial or a definitive and total loss with respect to the purchase price already before the Expiration Date of that relevant TURBO Warrant.

Other than in the case of standard warrants this risk reflects the nature of a TURBO Warrant as an instrument which might become almost or totally worthless during the period from the first trading date until the Expiration Date without the possibility to recover in value.

- Continuous Increase of the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or Continuous Decrease of the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants)

The Cash Settlement Amount to which the Warrantholder is entitled depends solely on the difference between the reference price of the Underlying Asset and the Strike Price applicable on the Valuation Date. In this connection it has to be considered that the Strike Price of the TURBO Warrants is adjusted on a daily basis which means that the Strike Price is generally increased in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants and generally decreased in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants. If the price of the Underlying Asset does not also increase or decrease in at least the same degree, the value of the TURBO Warrants will decrease with each day.

The Strike Price is adjusted on each calendar day by the Adjustment Amount which is determined by the Issuer on the basis of (i) the Reference Rate applicable in the respective Adjustment Period and (ii) the Interest Rate Adjustment Factor (for definitions of the terms "Adjustment Amount", "Adjustment Period", "Interest Rate Adjustment Factor" and "Reference Rate" see § 2 paragraph (2) of the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants). Investors should be aware that the determination of the Interest Rate Adjustment Factor is in the reasonable discretion of the Issuer

- Adjustment of the Strike Price and the Knock-out Level in the case of dividend payments

In the case of the payment of a regular dividend in respect of the Share, the applicable Knock-out Level and Strike Price will be adjusted by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion as of the ex-date of such dividend payment.

Holders of TURBO BULL Warrants should be aware that due to the adjustments to the Knock-out Level and the Strike Price, a Knock-out Event can possibly occur to such a TURBO BULL Warrants if the traded price of the underlying Share on the Exchange does not or does not entirely reflect the event of such dividend payment.

- Extraordinary early termination and adjustment rights

According to the terms and conditions of the TURBO Warrants the Issuer may be entitled to make adjustments to the terms and conditions of the TURBO Warrants or to early terminate the TURBO Warrants if certain circumstances occur. Such circumstances are described in the terms and conditions and may include, without limitation, the cancellation of or changes made to an index in the case of index-linked TURBO Warrants or events that have a significant impact on the underlying shares in the case of equity-linked TURBO Warrants. Any adjustment of the terms and conditions may have a negative effect on the value of the TURBO Warrants and the redemption amount. Also, the amount at which the TURBO Warrants are redeemed in the event of an early termination may be lower than the amount the holders of the TURBO Warrants would have received without such early termination.

- "Unlimited" TURBO Warrants; Necessity of Exercise; Sale of the TURBO Warrants

The essential characteristic of the TURBO Warrants is that the TURBO Warrants are not automatically exercised during their life. It is a prerequisite for the payment of the Cash Settlement Amount that the Warrantholder has exercised its TURBO Warrants or that the Issuer has terminated the TURBO Warrants. Without such exercise or termination of the TURBO Warrants there is no guarantee that the Warrantholder will receive the Cash Settlement Amount. As it cannot be expected that the Issuer will terminate the TURBO Warrants the Warrantholder is compelled to exercise its TURBO Warrants in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants in order to receive the Cash Settlement Amount.

Warrantholders should be aware that an exercise of the TURBO Warrants is only possible with respect to the Exercise Dates detailed in the Terms and Conditions. During the period between two Exercise Dates a realisation of the economic value of the TURBO Warrants (or part of it) is only possible by selling the Warrants.

A sale of the TURBO Warrants, however, requires that there are market participants willing to purchase the TURBO Warrants at the respective price. If there are no market participants willing to do so the value of the Warrants may possibly not be realised. The Issuer has no obligation to provide for a trading in the TURBO Warrants or to repurchase the TURBO Warrants itself.

- Other Risks associated with the Purchase of TURBO Warrants

TURBO Warrants involve a high degree of risk and investors must be prepared to sustain a total loss of the purchase price of their TURBO Warrants. This is particularly the case if the price of the Underlying Asset is below the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or is above the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) it cannot be expected that the price of the Underlying Asset will move into the preferred direction. The occurrence of fluctuations or the non-occurrence of anticipated fluctuations in the price of the Underlying Asset may disproportionately affect the value of the TURBO Warrants and may lead to the TURBO Warrants expiring worthless.

Important factors in determining the price of TURBO Warrants are in particular:

- the actual price of the relevant Underlying Asset and the expectations of market participants regarding its price, and
- the anticipated frequency and intensity of fluctuations in the price of the relevant Underlying Asset (volatility).

- Risk of Loss due to Changes in the Volatility of the Underlying Asset

Changes in the frequency and intensity of fluctuations in the price of the Underlying Asset anticipated by the market participants (implied volatility) may reduce the value of the TURBO Warrants even if the price of the Underlying Asset does not change. A generally positive development in the price of the Underlying Asset does not necessarily result in an increase in the price of the TURBO Warrants. The price of the TURBO Warrants may even fall if the performance of the Underlying Asset is overcompensated by a decreasing volatility with a negative effect on the value of the TURBO Warrants.

- Risk of Loss due to a Decrease in the Time Value

Depending on the expectations of the market participants with respect to the future performance of the Underlying Asset, they are prepared to pay a price for a TURBO Warrant which differs to a greater or lesser extent from the intrinsic value of the TURBO Warrant (the intrinsic value means the amount by which the market price of the Underlying Asset exceeds the Strike Price (in the case of a TURBO BULL Warrant) or is exceeded by the Strike Price (in the case of a TURBO BEAR Warrant)).

- Risk associated with Leverage

A typical feature of TURBO Warrants is their leverage effect on the earnings prospects of the invested capital: The price of TURBO Warrants always reacts over proportionately to changes in the price of the Underlying Asset and, thus, offer chances of higher profit during their lifetime - but bear at the same time high risks of incurring a loss. This is because the leverage has an effect in both directions - i.e. not only upwards in favourable periods, but also downwards in unfavourable periods. The greater the leverage, the riskier the purchase of TURBO Warrants.

- Time Lag after Exercise – Market Disruption Event

In the case of any exercise of the TURBO Warrants, there will be a time lag between the time a Warrantholder gives instructions to exercise and the time the applicable Cash Settlement Amount relating to such exercise is determined. Any such delay between the time of exercise and the determination of the Cash Settlement Amount will be specified in the Terms and Conditions. However, such delay could be significantly longer, particularly in the case of the occurrence of a market disruption event (if applicable) or following the imposition of any exchange controls. The applicable price of the Underlying Asset may change significantly during any such period, and such movement or movements could decrease the Cash Settlement Amount of the TURBO Warrants being exercised and may result in such Cash Settlement Amount being zero.

- TURBO Warrants are Unsecured Obligations

The TURBO Warrants are unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, without any preference among themselves and without any preference one above the other by reason of priority of date of issue, currency or any payment or otherwise, except for obligations given priority by law. Any person who purchases any of the TURBO Warrants is relying upon the creditworthiness of the Issuer and has no rights under the TURBO Warrants against any other person. Together with the general investment risk an investment in the TURBO Warrants is also concerned with possible default risk of the Issuer. The Issuer may issue several issues of warrants relating to various reference underlying assets which may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. However, no assurance can be given that the Issuer will issue any warrants other than the warrants to which a particular set of Final Terms relates. At any given time, the number of warrants outstanding may be substantial. TURBO Warrants provide opportunities for investment and pose risks to investors as a result of fluctuations in the value of the underlying asset. In general, certain risks associated with the TURBO Warrants are similar to those generally applicable to other options or warrants of private corporate issuers.

- Issuer Risk

In addition to the risk connected with the investment in the Underlying Asset of a TURBO Warrant, the investor bears the risk that the financial situation of the Issuer of the TURBO

Warrant declines – or that insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings are instituted against the Issuer – and that as a result the Issuer cannot fulfil its payment obligations under the TURBO Warrants.

- Possible Illiquidity of the TURBO Warrants in the Secondary Market

It is not possible to predict the price at which TURBO Warrants will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid or illiquid. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, list TURBO Warrants on a stock exchange.

The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, at any time purchase TURBO Warrants at any price in the open market or by tender or private treaty. Any TURBO Warrants so purchased may be held or resold or surrendered for cancellation. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, be a market-maker for an issue of TURBO Warrants. Even if the Issuer is a market-maker for an issue of TURBO Warrants, the secondary market for such TURBO Warrants may be limited. To the extent that an issue of TURBO Warrants becomes illiquid, an investor may have to exercise such TURBO Warrants to realise value.

- Potential Conflicts of Interest

The Issuer and its affiliates may also engage in trading activities (including hedging activities) related to the Underlying Asset of the TURBO Warrants and other instruments or derivative products based on or related to the Underlying Asset for their proprietary accounts or for other accounts under their management. The Issuer and its affiliates may also issue other derivative instruments in respect of the Underlying Asset. Such activities could present certain conflicts of interest, could influence the prices of the Underlying Assets or other securities and could adversely affect the value of such TURBO Warrants.

- Risks in connection with Borrowing

If the investor obtains a loan in connection with financing the purchase of the TURBO Warrants the investor does not only bear the risk of sustaining the loss in connection with the TURBO Warrants if the price of the Underlying Assets develops unfavourably, but also has to pay back the loan and pay the interest connected with it. This means a substantial increase in risk. An investor can never rely on being able to pay back the loan and the interest connected with it through gains derived from the purchase of the TURBO Warrants. Prospective purchasers of TURBO Warrants should therefore carefully consider their particular financial circumstances and whether they will be able to pay back the loan and pay the interest connected with it even if the investor has to sustain losses instead of the expected gains.

- Risks associated with Currency

If the Underlying Asset of the TURBO Warrants is quoted in another currency than the TURBO Warrant any risk in connection with an investment in the TURBO Warrants does not only depend on the development of the price of the Underlying Asset but also on the development of the respective currencies. Unfavourable developments in these markets can increase the risk and could lead to a decrease in the value of the TURBO Warrants or in the Cash Settlement Amount.

- Transactions Excluding or Limiting Risk

The investor cannot expect that at all times during the lifetime of the TURBO Warrants transactions can be concluded which exclude or limit the risks incurred from a purchase of TURBO Warrants; this depends on the market conditions and the specific features of such TURBO Warrants as specified in the Terms and Conditions. Such transactions can under certain circumstances be concluded only at an unfavourable market price and lead to a corresponding loss.

- Influence of ancillary Costs on Potential Profit

Investors should consider that the return on the investment in the TURBO Warrants is reduced by the costs in connection with the purchase and sale of the TURBO Warrants.

Minimum or fixed commissions per transaction (purchase and sale) combined with a low order value (price of the TURBO Warrant times quantity) can lead to costs which, in extreme cases, may exceed the value of the TURBO Warrants purchased. Additional costs arise generally if the TURBO Warrants are exercised. Together with the costs directly linked to the purchase of the TURBO Warrants, these additional costs may be considerable compared with the total Cash Settlement Amount received by the Warrantholder exercising his TURBO Warrants.

- The Influence of Hedging Transactions of the Issuer on the TURBO Warrants

The Issuer and/or its affiliates may in the course of their normal business activity engage in trading in the Underlying Asset. In addition, the Issuer may conclude transactions in order to hedge itself partially or completely against the risks associated with the issue of the TURBO Warrants. These activities of the Issuer and/or its affiliates may have an influence on the market price of the TURBO Warrants. A possibly negative impact of the conclusion or dissolution of these hedging transactions on the value of the TURBO Warrants or the size of the Cash Settlement Amount to which the holder of a Warrant is entitled cannot be excluded.

- Risk Factors relating to the underlying

The value of the respective underlying depends on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the Issuer's control. The historical experience of the respective underlying should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such underlying during the term of any Warrant. Additionally, there may be regulatory and other ramifications associated with the ownership by certain investors of the TURBO Warrants.

- Special Risks of TURBO Warrants relating to Shares

Shares are associated with particular risks, such as the risk that the respective company will be rendered insolvent, the risk that the share price will fluctuate or risks relating to dividends, over which the Issuer has no control. The performance of the shares depends to a very significant extent on developments on the capital markets, which in turn depend on the general global economic situation and more specific economic and political conditions. Shares in companies with low to medium market capitalisation may be subject to even higher risks (e.g. relating to their volatility or insolvency) than is the case for shares in larger companies. Moreover, shares in companies with low capitalisation may be extremely illiquid as a result of low trading volumes.

Shares of companies with its statutory seat or with significant business operations in countries with limited certainty of law are subject to additional risks such as, for instance, government interventions or nationalisation which may lead to a total or partial loss of the invested capital or of access to the capital invested in such country. The realisation of such risks may also lead to a total or partial loss of the invested capital for holders of TURBO Warrants linked to such shares.

Holders of TURBO Warrants that are linked to share prices do, contrary to investors which directly invest in the shares, not receive dividends or other distributions payable to the holders of the underlying shares.

- (2) For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions of the Warrants the following definitions shall apply:

"Adjustment Amount"

The Adjustment Amount for a series of Warrants during an Adjustment Period is the Strike Price on the Adjustment Date falling into the respective Adjustment Period, multiplied with the Adjustment Percentage applicable for the respective Adjustment Period.

"Adjustment Date"

Adjustment Date means the first calendar day of each month unless such day is not a Banking Day in which case the Adjustment Date shall be the next following Banking Day. The first Adjustment Date shall be November 3, 2008.

"Adjustment Percentage"

The Adjustment Percentage applicable for an Adjustment Period means the percentage resulting from dividing by 365 the sum of (i) the Reference Rate on the Adjustment Date falling into the respective Adjustment Period and (ii) the Interest Rate Adjustment Factor applicable for such Adjustment Period.

"Adjustment Period"

Adjustment Period means the period from the Issue Date (inclusive) to the first Adjustment Date (exclusive), and thereafter any period from an Adjustment Date (inclusive) to the following Adjustment Date (exclusive).

"Banking Day"

"Cash Settlement Amount"

The Cash Settlement Amount is the amount expressed in U.S. Dollar ("USD") and converted into Euro ("EUR") (the "Issue Currency") (rounded, if necessary, to the next Eurocent (EUR 0.01) with EUR 0.005 rounded upwards) determined in accordance with the following formula:

$(\text{Share}_{\text{final}} - \text{Strike Price}) \times \text{Ratio}$ (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants)

$\text{Share}_{\text{final}}$ = the Reference Price B of the Share relating to a series of Warrants on the Valuation Date

Strike Price = the Strike Price relating to a series of Warrants applicable on the Valuation Date

Ratio = the Ratio relating to a series of Warrants

The conversion into EUR shall be made at the Relevant Conversion Rate.

In addition to the above, the Knock-out Level is subject to adjustments in accordance to the provisions regarding Regular Dividend Adjustments as described in paragraph (4) and adjustments in connection with Adjustment Events and/or Extraordinary Events as described in § 4.

The appropriate Knock-out Level to a series of Warrants shall be published in accordance with § 9.

"Market Disruption Event" means any material occurrence or existence of any suspension of or limitation imposed on trading in (a) the Shares on the Exchange, or (b) any options contracts or futures contracts relating to the Share on the Related Exchange.

A limitation regarding the office hours or the number of days of trading will not constitute a Market Disruption Event if it results from an announced change in the regular business hours of the Exchange. A limitation on trading imposed during the course of a day by reason of movements in price exceeding permitted limits shall only be deemed to be a Market Disruption Event if such limitation still prevails at the time of termination of the trading hours on such date.

"Reference Rate"

The Reference Rate means the interest rate as published on Reuters page USD1MD= (or on the respective successor page). The Reference Rate during the first Adjustment Period shall be 6.82%.

"Relevant Conversion Rate" shall be the ask price of EUR 1.00 in USD, as quoted on the International Interbank Spot Market (the "EUR/USD Spot Rate") and published on Bloomberg page EURUSD on the Valuation Date at or about the time the Reference Price B is published.

Should such EUR/USD Spot Rate no longer be published on Bloomberg page EURUSD but on another page (the "Successor Page"), the Relevant Conversion Rate shall be the EUR/USD Spot Rate as published on the Successor Page. The Issuer shall publish the Successor Page according to § 9.

If on the Valuation Date the EUR/USD Spot Rate is not published on Bloomberg page EURUSD or on any Successor Page, the Issuer shall request four major banks in Frankfurt am Main at the Issuer's choice to quote ask prices for EUR in USD on such day at or about the time the Reference Price B is published. In this case, the Relevant Conversion Rate shall be the arithmetic means of such ask prices.

"Share"

The Share relating to a series of Warrants is the share determined in paragraph (3).

"Strike Price"

The Strike Price applicable to a series of Warrants on the Issue Date is equal to the price detailed in the table in paragraph (3). It is adjusted on every calendar day during the Adjustment Period by the Adjustment Amount.

The Strike Price applicable with respect to a calendar day shall be the amount so adjusted and rounded thereafter, if necessary, to the next U.S. cent (USD 0.01) (with USD 0.005 rounded upwards). The calculation of the Strike Price applicable on the next calendar day, however, shall be based on the unrounded Strike Price.

The calculation of the Strike Price during the first Adjustment Period shall be based on the Strike Price as of the Issue Date.

The Strike Price applicable on the Adjustment Date of an Adjustment Period is calculated as the sum of the Strike Price applicable on the last calendar day of the previous Adjustment Period and the Adjustment Amount applicable during the previous Adjustment Period.

In addition to the above, the Strike Price is subject to adjustments in accordance to the provisions regarding Regular Dividend Adjustments as described in paragraph (4) and adjustments in connection with Adjustment Events and/or Extraordinary Events as described in § 4.

The appropriate Strike Price to a series of Warrants shall be published in accordance with § 9.

"Valuation Date"

Subject to the provisions below and subject to § 6 paragraph (3), the Valuation Date shall be the Exercise Date.

If, according to the provision above, the Valuation Date is postponed for three consecutive Banking Days, and if also on such day the Reference Price B of the relevant Share is still not determined and published by the Exchange or if in the opinion of the Issuer a Market Disruption Event occurs on such day, then this day shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date and the Issuer shall estimate the Reference Price B of the relevant Share in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 German Civil Code (BGB)), and in consideration of the prevailing market conditions on such day and make a notification thereof in accordance with § 9..

- (4) In case of a regular dividend payment of the relevant Company the Strike Price and the Knock-out Level of the Warrants will be adjusted as determined by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 German Civil Code (BGB)) (the "Regular Dividend Adjustment"). Such Dividend Adjustment will be effective as of the date on which the relevant Share is traded at the relevant Exchange ex-dividend. Adjustments as well as the effective date shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 9.

§ 3 Knock-out Event

- (1) If on or after the Issue Date at a time on which no Market Disruption Event with regard to the relevant Share occurs, the Reference Price A of the Share is at least once equal to or below the Knock-out Level (in the case of TURBO CALL Warrants) or equal to or above the Knock-out Level (in the case of TURBO PUT Warrants) (the "Knock-out Event"), then the Option Right of the Warrantholder according to § 2 paragraph (1) shall expire and the Warrantholder shall receive from the Issuer the Knock-out Amount on the fifth Banking Day following the day on which the Knock-out Event occurred.

Any of the before-mentioned adjustments may, among others, relate to the the Strike Price, the Knock-out Level as well as the Ratio and may result in the underlying Share being replaced by other securities, a basket of securities and/or Adjustments take effect as from the date determined by the Issuer, provided that (in case the Issuer takes into consideration the manner in which adjustments are or would be made by the Related Exchange) the Issuer shall take into consideration the date at which such adjustments take effect or would take effect at the Related Exchange if such option or futures contracts were traded at the Related Exchange. Adjustments as well as the effective date shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 9.

- (b) In the case of an Extraordinary Termination by the Issuer due to the occurrence of an Extraordinary Event, the Warrants shall be redeemed on the Extraordinary Termination Date at the extraordinary redemption amount (the "Extraordinary Redemption Amount") which shall be calculated by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 of the German Civil Code (BGB)) as the fair market value of the Warrants at the date as determined by the Issuer in the notification of the extraordinary termination.
