Creation of CGGVeritas

PARIS January 15, 2007 – Compagnie Générale de Géophysique-Veritas (NYSE: CGV ; formerly GGY) today announced the completion of the merger between Veritas DGC Inc. (NYSE: formerly VTS) and a subsidiary of Compagnie Générale de Géophysique on January 12, 2007, upon satisfaction of the closing conditions of the merger agreement.

The combined company has been renamed "Compagnie Générale de Géophysique-Veritas," abbreviated as "CGGVeritas", and is listed on both Euronext Paris and the New York Stock Exchange (in ADS form). The trading symbol of the combined company's ADS on the New York Stock Exchange is "CGV".

Based on merger closing date, and according to the formula set out in the merger agreement, the per share cash consideration to holders of Veritas stock is $85.50 and the per share stock consideration is 2.0097 CGGVeritas ADSs. As disclosed previously, Veritas stockholders who elected cash will receive a mix of cash consideration and stock consideration, and the stockholders who elected stock and all stockholders who failed to make a valid election will receive stock consideration. The exact allocation of merger consideration to stockholders who elected cash will not be known until final results of the election process are determined, at the end of the guaranteed delivery period at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on January 17, 2007.

During the CGG shareholders meeting held on January 9, 2007, CGG shareholders voted, conditioned upon completion of the merger, to elect four new board members, all of whom were previous board members of Veritas, namely: Loren K. Carroll, Thierry Pilenko, David F. Work and Terence Young. The board of directors of CGGVeritas is composed of 12 members.

Robert Brunck stated, "As Chairman and CEO, I am very pleased to present to our shareholders the leading pure-play geophysical company, CGGVeritas. We provide our shareholders and customers with an unrivaled asset base and the industry reference in advanced technology supported by the deep expertise of our employees worldwide.

With our leading equipment manufacturing activities, state of the art vessels and land crews, extremely well positioned multi-client library, cutting-edge imaging technologies and the unique knowledge and client-focused mindset of our people, CGGVeritas is a choice of value for our customers and shareholders, especially considering the favorable upstream oil and gas services market environment.

Our unmatched capabilities provide our customers with the right tools to better explore, better develop and better produce reservoirs as they look to address reserve replacement challenges. In full partnership with our clients, we will leverage our unique positioning into sustainable value creation for our shareholders and a highly motivating work environment for our personnel".

The company will officially launch its new corporate identity on January 23rd 2007, to celebrate the creation of CGGVeritas.
