RISK FACTORS

Prospective purchasers of the TURBO Warrants are advised to read the complete Base Prospectus including the chapter on "Risk Factors" and to seek their own advice (including tax consultants and accountholding bank) before reaching an investment decision.

Potential investors intending to purchase the TURBO Warrants should only purchase the TURBO Warrants if they are able to evaluate the merits and risks of such a purchase and if they are able to sustain the loss of the purchase price and of the transaction costs in connection with the purchase of the TURBO Warrants.

RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE TURBO WARRANTS

- General

TURBO Warrants relating to indices (the "TURBO Warrants") grant to the holder (the "Warrantholder") the right (the "Option Right") to receive an amount in cash expressed in or converted into Euro, as the case may be, and multiplied with the Ratio by which the Reference Price of the underlying asset (the share, index, precious metal, futures contract, currency exchange rate or fund unit) (the "Underlying") exceeds the Strike Price as determined in the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants on the Valuation Date (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or is exceeded by the Strike Price (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) (the "Cash Settlement Amount"). If the Cash Settlement Amount is a negative amount at that time, the TURBO Warrants expire worthless. The Underlying Assets will not be delivered.

The Option Right will be worthless upon the occurrence of a Knock-out Event (see below "Knock-out Event").

The TURBO Warrants do not entitle the Warrantholders to receive a coupon payment or dividend yield and therefore do not constitute a regular source of income. Possible losses in connection with an investment in the TURBO Warrants can therefore not be compensated by other income from the TURBO Warrants.

- Loss Risks / Knock-out Event

As soon as, at any time during the period from the Issue Date until the Valuation Date (in each case inclusive of such date), a price of the Underlying as stipulated in the Terms and Conditions reaches or falls below (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or reaches or exceeds (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants) the Knock-out Level stipulated in the Terms and Conditions (each, a "Knock-out Event"), the TURBO Warrants will expire without requiring any further action of the Warrantholder.

In that case, the TURBO Warrants will expire worthless. In that case, the Warrantholder will incur a loss that corresponds to the full purchase price paid for the TURBO Warrant.

- Exercise of the TURBO Warrants only on the Exercise Date (European Style)

One of the essential characteristics of the TURBO Warrants is that the TURBO Warrants are not exercisable during their lifetime. An automatic payment can only be expected by the Warrantholder (i) latest on the fifth Payment Business Day following the Valuation Date, or, (ii) in case of an Early Termination of the TURBO Warrants by the Issuer, on the Early Termination Date.

Prior to the Exercise Date (or prior to the Early Termination Date in case of an Early Termination of the TURBO Warrants by the Issuer) a realisation of the economic value of the TURBO Warrants (or part of it) is only possible by selling the TURBO Warrants. A sale of the TURBO Warrants, however, requires that there are market participants willing to purchase the TURBO Warrants at the respective price. If there are no market participants willing to do so the value of the TURBO Warrants may possibly not be realised. The Issuer has no obligation to provide for a trading in the TURBO Warrants or to repurchase the TURBO Warrants itself.

- Early termination and adjustment rights

According to the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants as set forth in the Final Terms the Issuer may be entitled to make adjustments to the Terms and Conditions of the TURBO Warrants or to early terminate the TURBO Warrants if certain circumstances occur. Such circumstances are described in the Terms and Conditions and may include, without limitation, the cancellation of or changes made to an index in the case of index-linked TURBO Warrants or events that have a significant impact on the underlying shares in the case of equity-linked TURBO Warrants. Any adjustment of the Terms and Conditions may have a negative effect on the value of the TURBO Warrants and the Cash Settlement Amount. Also, the amount at which the TURBO Warrants are redeemed in the event of an early termination may be lower than the amount the holders of the TURBO Warrants would have received without such early termination.

- Continuous price of the Underlying and the price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date

The question whether the Knock-out Level shall be triggered is decided on the basis of any price of the Underlying determined at any time from the Issue Date until the Exercise Date. The calculation of the Cash Settlement Amount is based only on one price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date as determined in the Terms and Conditions.

- Risk of Loss due to Changes in the Volatility of the Underlying

Changes in the frequency and intensity of fluctuations in the price of the Underlying anticipated by the market participants (implied volatility) may reduce the value of the TURBO Warrants even if the price of the Underlying does not change. A generally positive development in the price of the Underlying does not necessarily result in an increase in the price of the TURBO Warrants. The price of the TURBO Warrants may even fall if the performance of the Underlying is overcompensated by a decreasing volatility with a negative effect on the value of the TURBO Warrants.

- Risk of Loss due to a Decrease in the Time Value

Depending on the expectations of the market participants with respect to the future performance of the Underlying, they are prepared to pay a price for a TURBO Warrant which differs to a greater or lesser extent from the intrinsic value of the TURBO Warrant (the intrinsic value means the amount by which the market price of the Underlying exceeds the Strike Price (in the case of a TURBO BULL Warrant) or is exceeded by the Strike Price (in the case of a TURBO BEAR Warrant). Thus, the time value of a TURBO Warrant, i.e. the premium paid on top of its intrinsic value, changes permanently. As closer to the expiry of a TURBO Warrant, the more and faster its time value falls to zero; on expiry, the time value has reached zero.

Purchases of TURBO Warrants which still have a relatively high time value shortly before expiry are therefore associated with particular risks.

- Risk associated with Leverage

A typical feature of TURBO Warrants is their leverage effect on the earnings prospects of the invested capital: The price of TURBO Warrants always reacts over proportionately to changes in the price of the Underlying and, thus, offer chances of higher profit during their lifetime - but bear at the same time high risks of incurring a loss. This is because the leverage has an effect in both directions - i.e. not only upwards in favourable periods, but also downwards in unfavourable periods. The greater the leverage, the riskier the purchase of TURBO Warrants. The leverage effect is particularly strong in the case of TURBO Warrants with very short lifetimes.

- TURBO Warrants are Unsecured Obligations

The TURBO Warrants are unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, without any preference among themselves and without any preference one above the other by reason of priority of date of issue, currency or any payment or otherwise, except for obligations given priority by law. Any person who purchases any of the TURBO Warrants is relying upon the creditworthiness of the Issuer and has no rights under the TURBO Warrants against any other person. Together with the general investment risk an investment in the TURBO Warrants is also concerned with possible default risk of the Issuer. The Issuer may issue several issues of warrants relating to various reference underlying assets which may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. However, no assurance can be given that the Issuer will issue any warrants other than the warrants to which a particular set of Final Terms relates. At any given time, the number of warrants outstanding may be substantial. TURBO Warrants provide opportunities for investment and pose risks to investors as a result of fluctuations in the value of the underlying asset. In general, certain risks associated with the TURBO Warrants are similar to those generally applicable to other options or warrants of private corporate issuers.

- Issuer Risk

In addition to the risk connected with the investment in the Underlying of a TURBO Warrant, the investor bears the risk that the financial situation of the Issuer of the TURBO Warrant declines – or that insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings are instituted against the Issuer – and that as a result the Issuer cannot fulfil its payment obligations under the TURBO Warrants.

- Possible Illiquidity of the TURBO Warrants in the Secondary Market

It is not possible to predict the price at which TURBO Warrants will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid or illiquid. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, list TURBO Warrants on a stock exchange.

The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, at any time purchase TURBO Warrants at any price in the open market or by tender or private treaty. Any TURBO Warrants so purchased may be held or resold or surrendered for cancellation. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, be a market-maker for an issue of TURBO Warrants. Even if the Issuer is a market-maker for an issue of TURBO Warrants, the secondary market for such TURBO Warrants may be limited. To the extent that an issue of TURBO Warrants becomes illiquid, an investor may have to exercise such TURBO Warrants to realise value.

Important factors in determining the price of TURBO Warrants are in particular:

- the actual price of the relevant Underlying and the expectations of market participants regarding its price,
- the anticipated frequency and intensity of fluctuations in the price of the relevant Underlying (volatility), and

- the lifetime of the TURBO Warrants.

- Potential Conflicts of Interest

The Issuer and its affiliates may also engage in trading activities (including hedging activities) related to the Underlying Asset of the TURBO Warrants and other instruments or derivative products based on or related to the Underlying for their proprietary accounts or for other accounts under their management. The Issuer and its affiliates may also issue other derivative instruments in respect of the Underlying. Such activities could present certain conflicts of interest, could influence the prices of the Underlying or other securities and could adversely affect the value of such TURBO Warrants.

- Risks in connection with Borrowing

If the investor obtains a loan in connection with financing the purchase of the TURBO Warrants the investor does not only bear the risk of sustaining the loss in connection with the TURBO Warrants if the price of the Underlying develops unfavourably, but also has to pay back the loan and pay the interest connected with it. This means a substantial increase in risk. An investor can never rely on being able to pay back the loan and the interest connected with it through gains derived from the purchase of the TURBO Warrants. Prospective purchasers of TURBO Warrants should therefore carefully consider their particular financial circumstances and whether they will be able to pay back the loan and pay the interest connected with it even if the investor has to sustain losses instead of the expected gains.

- Risks associated with Currency

If the Underlying Asset of the TURBO Warrants is quoted in another currency than the TURBO Warrant any risk in connection with an investment in the TURBO Warrants does not only depend on the development of the price of the Underlying Asset but also on the development of the respective currencies. Unfavourable developments in these markets can increase the risk and could lead to a decrease in the value of the TURBO Warrants or in the Cash Settlement Amount.

- Transactions Excluding or Limiting Risk

The investor cannot expect that at all times during the lifetime of the TURBO Warrants transactions can be concluded which exclude or limit the risks incurred from a purchase of TURBO Warrants; this depends on the market conditions and the specific features of such TURBO Warrants as specified in the Final Terms of such TURBO Warrants. Such transactions can under certain circumstances be concluded only at an unfavourable market price and lead to a corresponding loss.

- Influence of ancillary Costs on Potential Profit

Investors should consider that the return on the investment in the TURBO Warrants is reduced by the costs in connection with the purchase and sale of the TURBO Warrants.

Minimum or fixed commissions per transaction (purchase and sale) combined with a low order value (price of the TURBO Warrant times quantity) can lead to costs which, in extreme cases, may exceed the value of the TURBO Warrants purchased. The costs may be considerable compared with the total Cash Settlement Amount received by the Warrantholder exercising his TURBO Warrants.

- The Influence of Hedging Transactions of the Issuer on the TURBO Warrants

The Issuer and/or its affiliates may in the course of their normal business activity engage in trading in the Underlying. In addition, the Issuer may conclude transactions in order to hedge itself partially or completely against the risks associated with the issue of the TURBO Warrants. These activities of the Issuer and/or its affiliates may have an influence on the market price of the TURBO Warrants. A possibly negative impact of the conclusion or dissolution of these hedging transactions on the value of the TURBO Warrants or the size of the Cash Settlement Amount to which the holder of a TURBO Warrant is entitled cannot be excluded. In particular, the dissolution of the hedge position and a possible unwinding of the Issuer's and/or its affiliates' position in the Underlying during the closing auction on the relevant Valuation Date may influence the price of the Underlying in the closing auction. Consequently, the Cash Settlement Amount payable to the investor calculated on the reference price of the Underlying might be reduced merely by the fact that the hedge for the TURBO Warrants was dissolved on the Valuation Date in the closing auction. This risk is higher for Underlying with low liquidity levels, especially during the closing auction.

- Risk Factors relating to the underlying

The value of the respective underlying depends on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the Issuer's control. The historical experience of the respective underlying should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such underlying during the term of any Warrant. Additionally, there may be regulatory and other ramifications associated with the ownership by certain investors of the TURBO Warrants.

- Special Risks of TURBO Warrants relating to Indices

Dependency on the value of the index components

The respective value of an index is calculated on the basis of the value of its components. Changes in the composition of an index as well as factors that (may) influence the value of the components also influence the value of the relevant index and can thus influence the yield from an investment in the TURBO Warrants. Fluctuations in the value of one component of an index may be compensated or aggravated by fluctuations in the value of another component. Historical performance of the components does not represent any guarantee of future performance. An index used as an underlying may not, in certain circumstances, be maintained for the entire term of the TURBO Warrants.

An index may reflect the performance of assets of some countries or some industries only. Therefore, the value of the relevant index depends on the development of the index components of individual countries or industries. Even if more than just a few countries or industries are represented, it is still possible that the industries contained in the relevant index are weighted unevenly. This means that in case of an unfavourable development in one industry contained in the relevant index, the index may be affected disproportionately by this adverse development.

Investors should note that the selection of an index is not based on the expectations or estimates of the Issuer in respect of the future performance of the selected index. Investors should thus make their own estimates in respect of the future performance of the components of an index and the index itself on the basis of their own knowledge and sources of information.

No influence of the Issuer

As a general rule, the Issuer has no influence on the composition and performance of an underlying index or the performance of its components. A change in composition may have an adverse effect on the value of the TURBO Warrants.

No liability of the index sponsor

Where the Issuer is not the index sponsor of the relevant index, TURBO Warrants based on an index as underlying are generally not sponsored or otherwise supported by any index sponsor, and the relevant index is composed and calculated by the respective index sponsor without any account being taken of the Issuer's or the interests of the holder's of the TURBO Warrants. In such case, the index sponsors does not assume any obligation or liability in respect of the issue, sale or trading of the TURBO Warrants.

No recognised financial index, no independent third party

The TURBO Warrants may be linked to a index which is not recognised financial index but index that have been created for the issuance of the relevant TURBO Warrant. The index sponsor of such index might not be independent from the Issuer and may thus favour the interests of the Issuer over the interests of the holder of the TURBO Warrants.

Composition fees

Certain fees, costs, commissions or other charges for composition and calculation may be deducted when calculating the value of an index on the basis of the value of its individual components. As a result, the performance of the individual index components is not acknowledged in full when calculating the performance of the respective index, but is reduced by the amount of such fees, costs, commissions and other charges, and these may to some extent erode any positive performance displayed by the individual components. It should also be noted that such costs may well also be incurred if the index returns negative performance.

Publication of the index composition

Even if the composition of the relevant indices is to be published on a website or in other media specified in the Final Terms, the composition shown might not always be the current composition of the respective relevant index because the posting of the updated composition of the respective index on the website might be delayed considerably, sometimes even by several months.

The occurrence of a Market Disruption Event shall be published in accordance with § 10

A limitation regarding the office hours or the number of days of trading will not constitute a Market Disruption Event if it results from an announced change in the regular business hours of the relevant exchange. A limitation on trading imposed during the course of a day by reason of movements in price exceeding permitted limits shall only be deemed to be a Market Disruption Event in the case that such limitation is still prevailing at the time of termination of the trading hours on such date.

(OPTION RIGHT, KNOCK-OUT EVENT, EXERCISE, SETTLEMENT)

1. Subject to the occurrence of a Knock-out Event in accordance with paragraph 2. and subject to the occurrence of an Early Termination of the Warrants according to § 4, each Warrant grants to the Warrantholder the right (the "Option Right"), to receive upon exercise from the Issuer the payment of the Cash Settlement Amount in accordance with these Terms and Conditions of the Warrants.

The Cash Settlement Amount is the amount expressed in Euro (“EUR”) (rounded, if necessary, to the next Eurocent (EUR 0.01) with EUR 0.005 rounded upwards) determined in accordance with the following formula:

$(\text{Underlying}_{\text{final}} - \text{Strike Price}) \times \text{Ratio}$ (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants)

For the purposes of calculations made in connection with these Terms and Conditions of the Warrants, one point of the Index level shall be equal to EUR 1.00.

2. If on any day during the period from and including the Issue Date to and including the Valuation Date at a time on which no Market Disruption Event occurs any intra-day level of the Index as determined and published by the Index Sponsor (including the closing level) is at least once equal to or below the Knock-out Level (in the case of TURBO BULL Warrants) or equal to or above the Knock-out Level (in the case of TURBO BEAR Warrants), the Option Right pursuant to paragraph 1 shall lapse and no Cash Settlement Amount is payable to the Warrantholder by the Issuer. If a Knock-out Event occurs, the Warrants will expire worthless.
3. Subject to the occurrence of a Knock-out Event and subject to an Early Termination of the Warrants in accordance with § 4, the Warrants shall be deemed to be automatically exercised on the Exercise Date without the need of any action by or on behalf of the Warrantholder if the Cash Settlement Amount is a positive amount at that time.
4. The Issuer shall pay the Cash Settlement Amount not later than on the fifth Payment Business Day following the Valuation Date to the Clearing System for crediting the accounts of the Warranholders.

§ 4 (ADJUSTMENTS, EARLY TERMINATION)

1. If the Index is no longer calculated and published by the Index Sponsor but by another person, company or institution acceptable to the Issuer as the new Sponsor (the “Successor Sponsor”), the Cash Settlement Amount will be determined on the basis of the Index being calculated and published by the Successor Sponsor and any reference made to the Index Sponsor shall, if the context so admits, then refer to the Successor Sponsor.
2. If at any time the Index is cancelled or replaced, the Issuer will determine in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 German Civil Code (BGB)) another index on the basis of which the Cash Settlement Amount will be determined (the “Successor Index”). The respective Successor Index as well as the time of its first application will be notified pursuant to § 10. Any reference made to the Index in these Terms and Conditions shall, if the context so admits then refers to the Successor Index. All related definitions shall be deemed to be amended accordingly. Furthermore, the Issuer will make all necessary adjustments to the Terms and Conditions resulting from a substitution of the Index.
3. In the case that the occurrence of an Adjustment Event with respect to a share contained in the Index (the “Index Share”) has a material effect on the price of the Index, the Issuer shall be entitled to make adjustments among others to the Strike Price, the Ratio as well as the Knock-out Level in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 German Civil Code (BGB)) and give notification pursuant to § 10. Such adjustment shall become effective on the date on which the occurrence of the Adjustment Event with respect to the Index Share has its effect on the price of the Index.

"Adjustment Event" means any of the following events:

- (a) the substitution of the Index by a Successor Index pursuant to paragraph 2;
- (b) any of the following actions taken by the company issuing the Index Share (the "Index Company"): capital increases through issuance of new shares against capital contribution and issuance of subscription rights to the shareholders, capital increases out of the Index Company's reserves, issuance of securities with option or conversion rights related to the Index Share, distributions of extraordinary dividends, stock splits or any other split, consolidation or alteration of category;
- (c) a spin-off of a part of the Index Company in such a way that a new independent entity is formed, or that the spun-off part of the Index Company is absorbed by another entity;
- (d) the adjustment of option or futures contracts relating to the Index Share on the exchange with the highest trading volume in such option or futures contracts (the "related exchange") or the announcement of such adjustment;
- (e) a takeover-bid, i.e. an offer to take over or to swap or any other offer or any other act of an individual person or a legal entity that results in the individual person or legal entity buying, otherwise acquiring or obtaining a right to buy more than 10% of the outstanding shares of the Index Company as a consequence of a conversion or otherwise, as determined by the Issuer based on notifications to the competent authorities or on other information determined as relevant by the Issuer;
