§ 1 (Series, Form of Certificates, Issuance of Additional Certificates)

1. This series (the "Series") of Turbo Put Certificates linked to the CAC 40[®] Future (June 2010) (the "Certificates") of UniCredit Bank AG (formerly Bayerische Hypo- und Vereinsbank AG) (the "Issuer") will be issued on 10 March 2010 (the "Issue Date") pursuant to these terms and conditions (the "Terms and Conditions"), in Euro (the "Specified Currency") as non-par value Certificates in the aggregate number specified as the Number of Certificates in Appendix 1 of the Annex 1.

In accordance with the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer shall pay for each Certificate to the holder of such Certificate (each a "Certificate Holder"; all holders of Certificates are collectively referred to as "Certificate Holders") the Redemption Amount (§ 4) calculated in accordance with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.

2. The Certificates are represented by a Permanent Global Bearer Certificate (the "Global Bearer Certificate"), without interest coupons, which bears the manual signatures of two authorised signatories of the Issuer as well as the manual signature of a control officer of Citibank International Plc, Paris, and which is deposited with Euroclear France S.A. (the "Clearing System"). Certificates are transferable as co-ownership interests in the Global Bearer Certificate in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Clearing System. The right to request definitive certificates shall be excluded.
3. The Issuer reserves the right to issue additional certificates on the same terms at any time, without approval of the Certificate Holders, in such manner as to consolidate them with these Certificates forming a single fungible series together with the latter. In that event, the term "Certificates" also includes such additionally issued certificates.

§ 2 (Definitions)

Within these Terms and Conditions the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Reference Asset" means the CAC 40[®] Future (June 2010) (Reuters: FCEM0) as determined at Euronext Liffe (Monep) Paris S.A. (the "Reference Market").

"Reference Price" means the official settlement price of the Reference Asset as published on the Reference Market.

"Calculation Date" means any day on which the Reference Asset is published on the Reference Market.

"Barrier Level" means an amount stated in Appendix 1 of the Annex 1.

"Observation Period" means each Calculation Date between 10 March 2010 (included) and the Maturity Date (excluded).

"Clearance System" means the principal domestic clearance system customarily used for settling trades in the securities that form the basis of the Reference Asset as determined by the Calculation Agent.

"Clearance System Business Day" means, in respect of a Clearance System, any day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) on which such Clearance System is open for the acceptance and execution of settlement instructions.

§ 3 (Interest)

The Certificates do not bear interest.

§ 4 (Redemption Amount, Automatic Early Redemption)

1. The redemption of the Certificates will be due, unless redeemed early pursuant to paragraph 2 of this § 4 or § 6, on the Maturity Date in the amount of the Redemption Amount.
2. If, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, on any Calculation Date within the Observation Period a Stop Loss Event has occurred, the Certificates will be redeemed pursuant to the provisions in § 8 on the Stop Loss Event Date by payment of the Early Redemption Amount per Certificate. The "Early Redemption Amount" equals an amount in the Specified Currency determined by the Calculation Agent on the Stop Loss Event Date in accordance with the following formula:

- If during the Observation Period a Stop Loss Event has occurred, the Early Redemption Amount on the Stop Loss Event Date will be calculated as follows:

If on any Calculation Date during the Observation Period the Reference Price was equal to or higher than the Barrier Level, the Certificates will be redeemed early by payment of the Early Redemption Amount within five Banking Days following the Stop Loss Event Date. The Early Redemption Amount shall be the maximum of (a) the difference of the Strike Price and the Early Settlement Price and (b) zero. The maximum amount as defined above will be adjusted by the Multiplier.

Whereas:

"Early Settlement Price" means the highest quotation of the Reference Asset as determined by the Calculation Agent on the Stop Loss Event Date.

"Stop Loss Event Date" means the date during the Observation Period on which the Stop Loss Event occurs.

"Stop Loss Event" means an event which occurs, if on any Calculation Date during the Observation Period (from 8.00 am to 10.00 pm Paris time) the Reference Price is equal or higher than the Barrier Level.

"Strike Price" means an amount stated in Appendix 1 of the Annex 1.

"Multiplier" means 0.01.

3. If the Certificates were not redeemed by payment of the Early Redemption Amount according to § 4 (2) then the "Redemption Amount" per Certificate equals an amount in the Specified Currency determined by the Calculation Agent on the Maturity Date in accordance with the following provisions:

- If during the Observation Period no Stop Loss Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date will be calculated as follows:

Max [(Strike Price - Settlement Price); 0] x Multiplier.

If during the Observation Period, the Reference Price has never been equal to or higher than the Barrier Level, the Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date shall be the maximum of (a) the difference between the Strike Price and the Settlement Price and (b) zero. The maximum amount as defined above will be adjusted by the Multiplier.

Whereas:

"Settlement Price" means the official settlement price as determined on the Reference Market and published at www.euronext.com.

The (Early) Redemption Amount is subject to Adjustments and Market Disruptions in accordance with § 6 and § 7.

4. In the following, any reference to the Redemption Amount shall be read as reference to the Early Redemption Amount.

§ 6 (Adjustments, Issuer's Irregular Call Rights)

1. The basis for calculating the Redemption Amount shall be the future contract specified as the Reference Asset considering the method of price determination and the trading conditions applicable on the Reference Market (e.g. in terms of the composition, the quality, the quantity or the currency of trading or the expiry dates).
2. If, in the reasonable discretion of the Calculation Agent, the method of price determination or the trading conditions applicable to the Reference Asset on the Reference Market are changed in a way that the new relevant method of price determination or the trading conditions applicable on the Reference Market applicable to the Reference Asset is, as a result of a change, no longer comparable to the previous relevant method or condition, the Calculation Agent is entitled to adjust the method to determine the Redemption Amount to account for such change. The Calculation Agent will use reasonable endeavours as to ensure that the economic position of the Certificate Holders remains unchanged to the largest extent possible. Any adjustment will be made by the Calculation Agent taking into account the time to maturity of the Certificates (if applicable) and the latest available price for the Reference Asset. The method to determine the Redemption Amount may also be adjusted in case trading in the Reference Asset is cancelled on the Reference Market. The adjusted method to determine the Redemption Amount and the time of its initial application shall be published in accordance with § 13.
3. If trading in the Reference Asset is at any time cancelled on the Reference Market but is resumed on another market which the Calculation Agent deems suitable in its reasonable discretion (the "Replacement Reference Market"), the Calculation Agent is entitled to stipulate that such Replacement Reference Market should in future be used as the basis for the calculation of the Redemption Amount. In such case, the Calculation Agent is also entitled to adjust the method or formula to calculate the Redemption Amount to account for any difference in the method of price determination or the trading conditions applicable to the Reference Asset on the Replacement Reference Market, as compared to the methods and conditions applicable on the Reference Market. The Replacement Reference Market and the time that it is first applied shall be published in accordance with § 13. Commencing with the first application of the Replacement Reference Market, any reference to the Reference Market in these Terms and Conditions, depending on the context, refers to the Replacement Reference Market.

4. Should the Calculation Agent come to the conclusion that no reasonable adjustment is possible to account for the change in the method of price determination or the trading conditions applicable to the Reference Asset on the Reference Market or should, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, no Replacement Reference Market be available, the Issuer is entitled to terminate the Certificates early by giving notice pursuant to § 13. Such termination shall become effective at the time of the notice pursuant to § 13 or at the time indicated in the notice. In that case, the Calculation Agent shall within ten Banking Days before the day of early repayment determine and publish without delay the reasonable market value of the Certificates (the "Cancellation Amount"). The Cancellation Amount will be paid pursuant to the provisions in § 8 to the Clearing System or to its order with the instruction for immediate forwarding to the Certificate Holders.
5. The adjustments and determinations of the Issuer pursuant to the paragraphs above shall be effected by the Issuer at its reasonable discretion (billigem Ermessen) pursuant to §§ 315 and 317 of the BGB and shall be final, conclusive and binding on all parties, except where there is a manifest error.

§ 7 (Market Disruptions)

1. Notwithstanding the conditions of § 6 above, if a Market Disruption occurs on an observation date, the respective observation date will be postponed to the next following Calculation Date on which the Market Disruption no longer exists. Any payment date relating to such observation date shall be postponed accordingly if applicable. No interest is due because of such postponement.
2. Should the Market Disruption continue for more than 30 consecutive Banking Days, the Issuer, in its sole and absolute discretion shall determine, or cause the Calculation Agent to determine, the Reference Price. The Reference Price required for the determination of the Redemption Amount shall be determined in accordance with prevailing market conditions around 10:00 a.m. (Munich local time) on this thirty-first day immediately prior to the occurrence of the Market Disruption available to the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, taking into account the economic position of the Certificate Holders.
3. "Market Disruption" means:
 - a) the suspension or the restriction of trading relating to the Reference Asset imposed by or pursuant to the rules of the Reference Market,
 - b) in general the suspension or the restriction of trading by the Reference Market, or
 - c) the significant change in the method of price determination or in the trading conditions relating to the Reference Asset by the Reference Market (e.g. in terms of the composition, the quantity or the currency relating to the underlying of the Reference Asset).

A restriction of the trading hours or the number of calculation days on the Reference Market shall not constitute a Market Disruption provided that the restriction is due to a prior announced change in the rules of the relevant Reference Market.

§ 8 (Payments)

1. The Issuer undertakes
 - a) to pay the Redemption Amount within five Banking Days following the Maturity Date,
 - b) to pay the Early Redemption Amount within five Banking Days following the Stop Loss Event Date, and
 - c) to pay the Cancellation Amount within five Banking Days as of the date of the notice pursuant to § 6 (4) or, as the case may be, the date of the early termination.

2. If the due date for any payment under the Certificates (the "Payment Date") is not a Banking Day then the Certificate Holders shall not be entitled to payment until the next Banking Day.
3. All payments shall be made to the Principal Paying Agent (as defined in § 9). The Principal Paying Agent shall pay all amounts due to the Clearing System for credit to the respective accounts of the depository bank for transfer to the Certificate Holders. The payment to the Clearing System shall discharge the Issuer from its payment obligations under the Certificates in the amount of such payment.
4. If the Issuer fails to make any payment under the Certificates when due, interest shall accrue on due amounts on the basis of the default rate of interest established by law. The accrual of interest starts on the due date (including) and ends at the end of the day immediately preceding the effective date of payment (including).

1. The Principal Paying Agent is UniCredit Bank AG, Munich Branch (the "Principal Paying Agent"). The French Paying Agent for Euroclear France S.A. is Citibank International Plc, 1-5 rue Paul Cezanne, 75008 Paris, France (the "French Paying Agent"). The Issuer may appoint additional paying agents (the "Paying Agents") and revoke such appointment. The appointment and revocation shall be published pursuant to § 13.
2. The Calculation Agent is UniCredit Bank AG, Munich Branch (the "Calculation Agent").
3. Should any event occur which results in the Principal Paying Agent, the French Paying Agent or Calculation Agent being unable to continue in its function as Principal Paying Agent, the French Paying Agent or Calculation Agent, the Issuer is authorized to appoint another bank of international standing as Principal Paying Agent or another person or institution with the relevant expertise as French Paying Agent or Calculation Agent. Any such transfer of the functions of the Principal Paying Agent, French Paying Agent or Calculation Agent shall be notified promptly by the Issuer pursuant to § 13.
4. In connection with the Certificates, the Principal Paying Agent, the French Paying Agent and the Calculation Agent act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Certificate Holders. The Principal Paying Agent and the French Paying Agent shall be exempt from the restrictions of § 181 German Civil Code.

 - a) the New Issuer assumes all obligations of the Issuer arising under the Certificates;
 - b) the Issuer and the New Issuer have obtained all required approvals and are able to transfer the payment obligations arising under these Certificates in the currency hereby required to the primary Paying Agent, without the need for retention of any taxes or charges collected by or in the country in which the New Issuer or the Issuer has its head quarter or in which it is considered a resident for tax purposes; and
 - c) the New Issuer has undertaken to indemnify all Certificate Holders for any taxes, charges or other public charges that are imposed on the Certificate Holders by reason of the substitution;

Appendix 2 - Product Information

The Reference Asset of the Certificates is the CAC 40[®] Future (June 2010). The CAC 40[®] Future (June 2010) is a equity index futures contract on the CAC 40[®] index traded on Euronext Liffe (Monep) Paris S.A. with maturity on 18 June 2010.

General characteristic of the futures contract on the CAC 40[®] index traded on Euronext Liffe (Monep) Paris S.A are :

The CAC 40[®] index, consisting of the 40 stocks that are most representative of the various economic sectors quoted on the Euronext Paris market. The index is managed by an independent committee, which adapts the index as necessary to reflect changes in the market or in the capital of the index's constituent stocks. The CAC 40[®] index is calculated continuously by Euronext Paris SA and disseminated every 15 seconds. Participants are reminded that, when securities representing over 35% of the capitalization of the CAC 40[®] index cannot be quoted temporarily, (either because of a technical incident, or due to a trading halt involving one or more of the issues in the sample), the index is replaced by a trend indicator known as an "éclaireur". In this case, the published index value reflects only the variation in prices of the shares that are quoted. Participants should be extremely cautious when extrapolating those variations to the index as a whole, and they are entirely responsible for the underlying assumptions they may make.

The trading unit is one future contract, for which each index point is assigned a value (the "multiplier") of EUR 10. The contract value is equal to the futures price multiplied by EUR 10.

Price quotation : The CAC 40[®] future contract is quoted in points index with one decimal place.

Minimum price fluctuation (tick) : 0.5 index points, equivalent to EUR 5 per contract (0.5 x EUR 10).

Last Trading Day: Third Friday in delivery month, 16.00 Paris time. In the event of the third Friday not being a business day, the Last Trading Day shall normally be the last business day preceding the third Friday.

Daily settlement price : At the close of the trading session of the equities included in the CAC 40[®] index, Euronext Paris SA determines the settlement price of each maturity of the future contract.

Settlement : The closing settlement price is calculated on the last business day as the arithmetic mean (rounded to one decimal) of the CAC 40[®] index values calculated and disseminated between 3:40 and 4 p.m. There is no physical delivery; expiration gives rise to cash payment of the final margin call. Appendix 3 - Risk Factors

Important Information relating to Risks in connection with the Certificates

These Final Terms are not a substitute for obtaining necessary advice from your bank. Investors should only buy the Certificates, if they will be able to bear the risk of loss of their invested capital.

Risk

In addition to the risk factors stated on pages 36 ff and 45 ff of the Prospectus, on which reference is taken hereby, you should consider the following risk factors:

By purchasing Certificates you are entitled to receive payment of a Redemption Amount linked to the price of the underlying future (the "Reference Price") as specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Certificates.

Basic Principles

- The Issue Price for Certificates is based on the pricing models used by the Issuer and may include hidden premiums on top of the mathematical value determined using such models. The Issuer will be entitled to determine the amount of any such premium, which may deviate from the premium charged by other issuers for comparable products. These premiums may also include commissions paid to third parties for services relating to derivative securities placement or a respective discount of the Issue Price. They may also result in a reduction of the market price for the securities over time.
- Sole debtor of the Certificate is the Issuer. The Certificate Holder shall only request payments under the Terms and Conditions from the Issuer. However, the Certificate Holder assumes the position of a creditor and the credit risk of the UniCredit Bank AG. The Certificate is not a subordinated, unsecured, contractual liability of the Issuer and afford no immediate rights or participation in respect to the Reference Asset. Should the Issuer get into financial difficulties or become insolvent, could the invested amount – independent from any cumulativeness of the Reference Asset – be partial or completely lost.
- As regards profit expectations, you will have to take any additional costs for the purchase or sale of the Certificates into account.
- Any dividend payments during the lifetime of the Certificates are used for the financing of the earnings mechanism and will not be distributed to the investors.

Price development of the Certificates:

- The development of the price for the Certificate is indirectly linked to the performance of the Reference Asset. The market value of the Certificates cannot generally be regarded as a precise reflection of the performance of the Reference Asset since factors such as market expectations and the liquidity of the Reference Assets affect the price development of the Certificates.
- The value of the Certificates may also be affected by the Issuer's credit rating on the capital market and supply and demand on the secondary market.
- If, during the term of the Certificate, the market price of the Certificate falls below the purchase price and you feel that the market price will not recover at all before the redemption date, it would be worth considering selling the Certificate and accepting a partial loss to avoid even greater losses. If, contrary to expectations, the market price of the Certificate rises after you have sold it, you may only take advantage of this by repurchasing the Certificate including the payment of any associated costs.
- Please note that the purchase of Certificates does not entitle the purchaser to receive on the redemption date a Redemption Amount already fixed today. Any change in the value of the Reference Asset may also lead to the value of the Certificate falling considerably below the price paid for it in line with the performance of the Reference Asset. This may lead to a partial or total loss of the capital you invest (i.e. the price of the Certificate itself, plus any other costs). If the value of the Certificate on the redemption date is less than the purchase price paid for the Certificates, investors will not get back all the money they invested. In such case, the capital loss will be equal to the difference between the purchase price paid for the Certificates and their value on the redemption date.

- If the Issuer liquidates any hedging arrangement for the Certificate issue, this may have a negative impact on the market price of the Reference Asset and therefore also on the value of the Certificates, particularly at the end of the lifetime of the Certificate.

Transactions Excluding or Limiting Risk

Do not assume that you will be able to enter into transactions at any time during the lifetime of the Certificate to exclude or limit the risks to which you are subject. These risks will depend on market factors and associated conditions. It may be the case that such transactions are only available at an unfavourable market price and that you will suffer a corresponding loss in this way.

Financing Transactions in Certificates

If you do decide to go ahead and purchase Certificates, the transaction should be financed using your own surplus funds so that any losses can be borne without difficulty.

If you nonetheless decide to finance the transaction using a loan, please ensure you can meet any interest and redemption payments in the event of a loss being incurred on the transaction. Do not assume that you will be able to finance the loan with any profits made from the Certificate transaction.

The Certificates do not certify the right to receive interest or dividend payments, and hence do not yield any running earnings that can be used to compensate possible losses in the value of the Certificates or to bear any running costs for a loan (interest, amortisation, processing fees).

If you finance a Certificate transaction by a loan, you will have to set your profit expectations for the transaction at a higher level, since you will have to take both the Certificate acquisition costs and the loan costs (interest, amortisation, processing fees) into account.

Notice

Prior to the purchase of these Certificates please read the Terms and Conditions together with the Base Prospectus and see a specialist for advice.

These important information relating to risks of loss are not an integral part of the Terms and Conditions; no claims can be derived thereof. Only the Terms and Conditions (Certificates) are decisive.
