Board resolution for issuance and repurchase limits for debentures The Royal Bank of Scotland N.V. and RBS Holdings N.V.

(Memo by Mrs. S. Hindle, Treasury RBS NV)

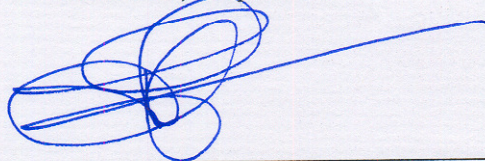

The Chairman establishes that, within the boundaries set by the Supervisory Board (subject to Supervisory Board approval), the Managing Board delegate to their sub-committee the Asset & Liability Management Committee ("ALCO") the authority, and grant power of attorney to issue debentures, including structured notes, of both by RBS NV and RBS Holdings NV, which includes the authority to decide on all matters relating to such issue, such as applying for listing, entering into contracts and granting (sub)proxies to certain persons to take all necessary actions in connection with such issue.

The Chairman establishes that the Managing Board unanimously authorises ALCO, and grant power of attorney to take any necessary decisions and actions in respect of debentures, including structured notes, issued by both RBS NV and RBS Holdings, such as changing terms and conditions, cancelling existing listings, entering into contracts and redeeming or buying back any issued debenture or derivative instrument.

The Chairman establishes that the Managing Board unanimously authorise ALCO, and grant power of attorney to take any necessary decisions and actions on behalf of both RBS NV and RBS Holdings NV in respect of securities issued by any subsidiary of RBS NV and RBS Holdings NV as defined in article 2:24a of the Dutch Civil Code, including without limitation the issuance of guarantees, the formation of legal entities and entering into contracts.

I, the undersigned, P.G.F.
