8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CL1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide exposure to the performance of the Reference Asset. An investor's exposure to the Reference Asset will be amplified (leveraged) because part of the investment in the Reference Asset will effectively be financed by the Issuer itself. Another effect of this Issuer financing is that the purchase price of the Certificates will always be less than a corresponding direct investment in the Reference Asset. The Issuer will charge a variable financing cost for providing the financing. This financing cost will accrue daily and be deducted from the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset falls to, or below, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CO1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide exposure to the performance of the Reference Asset. An investor's exposure to the Reference Asset will be amplified (leveraged) because part of the investment in the Reference Asset will effectively be financed by the Issuer itself. Another effect of this Issuer financing is that the purchase price of the Certificates will always be less than a corresponding direct investment in the Reference Asset. The Issuer will charge a variable financing cost for providing the financing. This financing cost will accrue daily and be deducted from the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset falls to, or below, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CO1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide exposure to the performance of the Reference Asset. An investor's exposure to the Reference Asset will be amplified (leveraged) because part of the investment in the Reference Asset will effectively be financed by the Issuer itself. Another effect of this Issuer financing is that the purchase price of the Certificates will always be less than a corresponding direct investment in the Reference Asset. The Issuer will charge a variable financing cost for providing the financing. This financing cost will accrue daily and be deducted from the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset falls to, or below, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CO1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide exposure to the performance of the Reference Asset. An investor's exposure to the Reference Asset will be amplified (leveraged) because part of the investment in the Reference Asset will effectively be financed by the Issuer itself. Another effect of this Issuer financing is that the purchase price of the Certificates will always be less than a corresponding direct investment in the Reference Asset. The Issuer will charge a variable financing cost for providing the financing. This financing cost will accrue daily and be deducted from the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset falls to, or below, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CO1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide a positive return if the level of the Reference Asset falls over the investment period and conversely, a negative return if the level of the Reference Asset rises over the investment period. This inverse exposure to the Reference Asset (typically referred to as "short exposure") may be amplified (leveraged) in certain circumstances. The return on the Certificates factors in a net financing cost which may be positive or negative and which is comprised of any proceeds that the Issuer receives through its hedge for the Certificates, less (i) any associated borrowing costs, and (ii) a variable charge for arranging the Certificates. This net financing cost will accrue daily and be added to, or deducted from (as the case may be) the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset rises to, or above, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide a positive return if the level of the Reference Asset falls over the investment period and conversely, a negative return if the level of the Reference Asset rises over the investment period. This inverse exposure to the Reference Asset (typically referred to as "short exposure") may be amplified (leveraged) in certain circumstances. The return on the Certificates factors in a net financing cost which may be positive or negative and which is comprised of any proceeds that the Issuer receives through its hedge for the Certificates, less (i) any associated borrowing costs, and (ii) a variable charge for arranging the Certificates. This net financing cost will accrue daily and be added to, or deducted from (as the case may be) the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset rises to, or above, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.

8 PERFORMANCE OF REFERENCE ASSET(S) OR OTHER VARIABLE, EXPLANATION OF EFFECT ON VALUE OF INVESTMENT AND ASSOCIATED RISKS AND OTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE REFERENCE ASSET(S) AND/OR OTHER UNDERLYING

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Bloomberg page: CO1 Comdty CT.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in this Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide a positive return if the level of the Reference Asset falls over the investment period and conversely, a negative return if the level of the Reference Asset rises over the investment period. This inverse exposure to the Reference Asset (typically referred to as "short exposure") may be amplified (leveraged) in certain circumstances. The return on the Certificates factors in a net financing cost which may be positive or negative and which is comprised of any proceeds that the Issuer receives through its hedge for the Certificates, less (i) any associated borrowing costs, and (ii) a variable charge for arranging the Certificates. This net financing cost will accrue daily and be added to, or deducted from (as the case may be) the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset rises to, or above, a specified level. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily by the Issuer in accordance with the terms set out above.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate (as such terms are defined above).

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.
