

Implementation of liquidity contract with EXANE BNP PARIBAS

ALTRAN entered into a liquidity contract with EXANE BNP PARIBAS on 10 August 2011 for a period ending on the 31st of December 2011 and renewable by tacit agreement. This contract is compliant with the Code of Conduct (Charte de Déontologie) issued by the French Association of Investment Firms (Association Française des Marchés Financiers) which is recognised by the AMF (Autorité des Marchés Financiers).

The means provided for this agreement and credited to the liquidity account are

- An amount of two million euros
- Altran Shares : none

About Altran

As European leader in Innovation and High-Tech Consulting, Altran has been providing services for almost thirty years to key players in the Automotive, Telecoms, Energy, Healthcare and Finance sectors. Thanks to the Group's expertise in advanced technologies and innovation processes it is able to support its clients in the creation and development of their products and services. Present at every stage of project development from strategic planning through to manufacturing, Altran provides new-technology services in the fields of Innovation Management, Mechanical Engineering, Engineering, as well as Embedded Systems, It Systems and Performance Management.

Press contacts

i&e CONSULTANTS

Camille Petit and Karine Jazra :

Tel: 33 1 56 03 14 80

altranpresse@i-e.fr