8 Performance of Reference Asset(s) or Other Variable, Explanation of Effect on Value of Investment and Associated Risks and Other Information Concerning the Reference Asset(s) and/or Other Underlying

Details of the historic performance of the Reference Asset can be obtained from various internationally recognised published or electronically available news sources, for example, Reuters code(s): .SPX, Bloomberg Ticker(s): SPX.

Investors should note that historical performance should not be taken as an indication of future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer makes no representation whatsoever, whether expressly or impliedly, as to the future performance of the Reference Asset. The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information.

Investors should form their own views on the merits of an investment related to the Reference Asset based on their own investigation thereof.

The description below represents a summary only of some of the features of the investment product described in these Final Terms. It does not purport to be an exhaustive description.

The product is issued as Certificates in EUR and aims to provide exposure to the performance of the Reference Asset. An investor's exposure to the Reference Asset will be amplified (leveraged) because part of the investment in the Reference Asset will effectively be financed by the Issuer itself. Another effect of this Issuer financing is that the purchase price of the Certificates will always be less than a corresponding direct investment in the components of the Index. The Issuer will charge a variable financing cost for providing the financing. This financing cost will accrue daily and be deducted from the amount payable to investors on redemption of the Certificates.

The Certificates will redeem automatically if the value of the Reference Asset falls to, or below, a specified price. Otherwise, the Certificates are redeemable annually by investors and daily from the Issue Date by the Issuer.

The amount payable on redemption of the Certificates will be determined by reference to the value of the Reference Asset, the outstanding financed amount, the Security Ratio and the prevailing Exchange Rate and any dividends that have been paid by shares that have comprised the Index during the life of the Certificates.

The maximum loss for an investor in respect of each Certificate is limited to the purchase price of the Certificate.
