The same shall apply if during the term of the Certificates changes are made or occur in respect of the Index Concept on the basis on which the Underlying is calculated, or if other measures are taken, which have an impact on the Index Concept, unless otherwise provided in below provisions.

3. Upon the occurrence of an Index Adjustment Event the Calculation Agent shall in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB), if necessary, adjust the method for the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount so that the economic situation of the Certificateholders remains unchanged to the largest extent possible. Any adjustment will be made by the Calculation Agent taking into account the adjustments of the there traded Derivatives linked to the Underlying actually performed by the Determining Futures Exchange and the remaining term of the Certificates as well as the latest available price of the Underlying. If the Calculation Agent determines that, pursuant to the rules of the Determining Futures Exchange, no adjustments are made to the Derivatives linked to the Underlying, the Terms and Conditions of the Certificates will regularly remain unchanged. The adjusted method for the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount and the time of its initial application shall be published in accordance with § 13.
 4. In cases of paragraph (2) (b) and (c), the adjustment pursuant to paragraph (3) usually occurs by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) determineing, which index should in the future be used as the basis for the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount (the "Replacement Underlying"). If necessary, the method for calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount shall be adjusted by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) so that the economic situation of the Certificateholders remains unchanged to the largest extent possible. The Replacement Underlying and the performed adjustment and the time of its initial application shall be published in accordance with § 13. Commencing with the first application of the Replacement Underlying, any reference to the Underlying in these Terms and Conditions, depending on the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Replacement Underlying.
 5. If the Underlying is no longer determined by the Index Sponsor but rather by another person, company or institution (the "New Index Sponsor"), then the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount shall occur on the basis of the Underlying as determined by the New Index Sponsor. In this case, any reference to the Index Sponsor shall be deemed as referring to the New Index Sponsor, if so permitted by context. If the Underlying is no longer calculated by the Index Calculation Agent but rather by another person, company or institution (the "New Index Calculation Agent"), then the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount shall occur on the basis of the Underlying as calculated by the New Index Calculation Agent. In this case, any reference to the Index Calculation Agent shall be deemed as referring to the New Index Calculation Agent, if so permitted by context.
 6. In the event that
 - a. an adjustment pursuant to paragraphs (3) or (4) is not possible or not justifiable with regard to the Issuer and/or the Certificateholders, or
 - b. in the reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) of the Calculation Agent no suitable Replacement Underlying or in the reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) of the Calculation Agent no suitable substitute for the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is available, or
 - c. a Change in Law and/or a Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Cost of Hedging (all as defined in § 2) occurs, the Issuer is entitled to terminate the Certificates early by giving notice pursuant to § 13 and to repay the Certificates at their "Cancellation Amount". Such termination shall become effective at the time of the notice pursuant to § 13 or at the time indicated in the notice. In that case, the Calculation Agent shall within ten Banking Days before the termination becomes effective determine in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) the reasonable market value of the Certificates. The Cancellation Amount will be published pursuant to § 13 and be paid pursuant to the provisions in § 8 to the Clearing System or to its order with the instruction for immediate forwarding to the Certificateholders.

(in each case a "Termination Event")

7. If a price of the Underlying published by the Index Sponsor and which is used by the Calculation Agent as the basis for the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Value") is published by the Index Sponsor after the original publication, but still within one Settlement Cycle, then the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer of the Corrected Value as soon as reasonably practicable and shall again specify and publish pursuant to § 13 the relevant value (the "Replacement Determination") by using the Corrected Value.

§ 7 (Market Disruption)

1. Notwithstanding the conditions of § 6 above, if a Market Disruption occurs on a Valuation Date, the respective Valuation Date will be postponed to the next following Calculation Date on which the Market Disruption no longer exists. Any payment date relating to such Valuation Date shall be postponed accordingly if applicable. No interest is due because of such postponement.
2. Should the Market Disruption continue for more than 30 consecutive Banking Days, the Issuer, in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) shall determine, or cause the Calculation Agent to determine in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB), the respective Reference Price. The Reference Price required for the calculation or specification of the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount shall be determined in accordance with prevailing market conditions around 10:00 a.m. (Munich local time) on this thirty-first Banking Day, taking into account the economic position of the Certificateholders.

If within these 30 Banking Days traded derivatives linked to the Underlying expire and are paid on the Determining Futures Exchange, the settlement price established by the Determining Futures Exchange for the there traded Derivatives will be taken into account in calculating or specifying the Put Amount and the Optional Redemption Amount. In that case, the expiration date for those Derivatives will be taken as the relevant Valuation Date.

3. "Market Disruption" means:
 - a. in general the suspension or restriction of trading on the exchanges or the markets on which the securities that form the basis of the Underlying are listed or traded, or on the respective futures exchanges or on the markets on which Derivatives linked to the Underlying are listed or traded,
 - b. in relation to individual securities which form the basis of the Underlying, the suspension or restriction of trading on the respective futures exchanges or on the markets on which such securities are traded or on the respective futures exchange or the markets, on which Derivatives linked to such securities are traded,
 - c. in relation to individual derivatives on the Underlying, the suspension or restriction of trading on the futures exchanges or the markets on which such derivatives are traded, or
 - d. the suspension of or failure to calculate or the non-publication of the calculation of the Underlying as a result of a decision by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent, to the extent that such Market Disruption occurs in the last hour prior to the normal calculation of the Reference Price and continues at the point of time of the normal calculation and is material in the reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) of the Calculation Agent. A restriction of the trading hours or the number of days on which trading takes place on the Relevant Exchange or, as the case may be, the Determining Futures Exchange, does not constitute a Market Disruption provided that the restriction is due to a prior announced change in the rules of the Relevant Exchange.

§ 8 (Payments)

1. The Issuer undertakes
 - a. to pay the Optional Redemption Amount within five Banking Days following the Call Date,
 - b. to pay the Put Amount within five Banking Days following the Put Date; and
 - c. to pay the Cancellation Amount within five Banking Days following the date of the notice pursuant to § 6 (6) or, as the case may be, the date of the early termination specified in such notice.

The amounts mentioned in this paragraph (1) and all further amounts payable under these Terms and Conditions shall be rounded up or down to the nearest 0.01 Euro, with 0.005 Euro being rounded upwards.

2. If the due date for any payment under the Certificates (the "Payment Date") is not a Banking Day then the Certificateholders shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Banking Day.
3. All payments shall be made to the Principal Paying Agent (as defined in § 9). The Principal Paying Agent shall pay the amounts due to the Clearing System for credit to the respective accounts of the depository banks for transfer to the Certificateholders. The payment to the Clearing System shall discharge the Issuer from its obligations under the Certificates in the amount of such payment.
4. If the Issuer fails to make any payment under the Certificates when due, accrual of interest on due amounts continues on the basis of the default interest rate established by law. Such accrual of interest starts on the due date of that payment (including) and ends at the end of the day preceding the effective date of payment (including).

4. In connection with the Certificates, the Principal Paying Agent, the French Paying Agent and the Calculation Agent act solely as agent of the Issuer and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Certificateholders. The Principal Paying Agent and the French Paying Agent shall be exempt from the restrictions of § 181 German Civil Code.
5. Determinations made by the Principal Paying Agent, French Paying Agent or Calculation Agent, will, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the Certificateholders.

§ 10 (Taxes)

Payments in respect of the Certificates shall only be made after deduction and withholding of current or future taxes, levies or governmental charges, regardless of their nature, which are imposed, levied or collected (the "Taxes") under any applicable system of law or in any country which claims fiscal jurisdiction by or for the account of any political subdivision thereof or government agency therein authorized to levy Taxes, to the extent that such deduction or withholding is required by law. The Issuer shall account for the deducted or withheld Taxes with the competent government agencies.

§ 11 (Status)

The obligations under the Certificates constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank, unless provided otherwise by law, at least pari passu with all other unsecured unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer.

§ 12 (Substitution of the Issuer)

1. The Issuer may without the consent of the Certificateholders, if no payment of principal or interest on any of the Certificates is in default, at any time substitute the Issuer for any Affiliate of the Issuer as principal debtor in respect of all obligations of the Issuer under the Certificates (the "New Issuer"), provided that
 - a. the New Issuer assumes all obligations of the Issuer in respect of the Certificates;

- b. the Issuer and the New Issuer have obtained all necessary authorizations and may transfer to the Principal Paying Agent in the currency required hereunder and without being obligated to deduct or withhold taxes or other duties of whatever nature levied by the country, in which the New Issuer or the Issuer has its domicile or tax residence, all amounts required for the fulfilment of the payment obligations arising under the Certificates;
- c. the New Issuer has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each Certificateholders against any tax, duty or other governmental charge imposed on such Certificateholders in respect of such substitution;
- d. the Issuer guarantees proper payment of the amounts due under these Terms and Conditions.

For purposes of this § 12 (1) "Affiliated Company" means an Affiliated Company within the meaning of Section 15 of the Stock Corporation Act.

- 2. Any such substitution shall be notified in accordance with § 13.
- 3. In the event of any such substitution, any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the Issuer shall from then on be deemed to refer to the New Issuer. Furthermore, any reference to the country, in which the Issuer is domiciled or resident for taxation purposes shall from then on be deemed to refer to the country of domicile or residence for taxation purposes of the New Issuer.

§ 13 (Notices)

- 1. To the extent these Terms and Conditions provide for a notice pursuant to this § 13, these will be published on the web page www.bourse.unicredit.fr (or another web page communicated by the Issuer with at least six weeks advance notice in accordance with these provisions) and become effective vis-à-vis the Certificateholders through such publication unless the notice provides for a later effective date. If and to the extent that binding provisions of effective law or stock exchange provisions provide for other forms of publication, such publications must be made in addition and as provided for.
- 2. Other publications with regard to the Certificates are published at www.onemarkets.de (or any replacement page).

§ 14 (Repurchase)

The Issuer shall be entitled at any time to purchase Certificates in the market or otherwise and at any price. Certificates repurchased by the Issuer may, at the Issuer's discretion, be held, resold or forwarded to the Principal Paying Agent for cancellation.

§ 15 (Presentation Period)

The presentation period provided in § 801 paragraph (1) sentence 1 of the German Civil Code (BGB) is reduced to ten years for the Certificates.

§ 16 (Partial Invalidity, Corrections)

- 1. Should any provision of these Terms and Conditions of the Certificates be or become invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the remaining provisions are not affected thereby. Any gap arising as a result of invalidity or unenforceability of these Terms and Conditions of the Certificates is to be filled with a provision that corresponds to the meaning and intent of these Terms and Conditions of the Certificates and is in the interest of the parties.
- 2. Obvious typing and calculation errors or similar obvious errors in the Terms and Conditions entitle the Issuer to contestation vis-à-vis the Certificateholders. The contestation must be declared promptly upon obtaining knowledge of such cause for contestation in accordance with § 13. Following such contestation by the Issuer, the Certificateholder can order his Custodian to submit a duly completed redemption declaration to the Principal Paying Agent on a form available there and by giving all information and declarations required by the form (the "Redemption Declaration") and demand the refunding of the Acquisition Price against transfer of the Certificates to the account of the Principal Paying Agent with the Clearing System. The Issuer will until at the latest 30 calendar days after receipt of the of the Redemption Declaration as well as the Certificates by the Principal Paying Agent (whatever is the later date) make the Acquisition Price available to the Principal Paying Agent, which will transfer it to the account listed in the Redemption Declaration. With the payment of the Acquisition Price all rights deriving from the submitted Certificates cease to exist.

3. The Issuer may combine the Redemption Declaration pursuant to paragraph (2) above with an offer to continue the Certificates under amended Terms and Conditions. The Certificateholders will be informed of such an offer as well as the amended provisions in accordance with § 13. Such an offer is deemed accepted by the Certificateholder (with the effect that the consequences of the contestation do not become effective) if the Certificateholder does not within four weeks after the offer becoming effective pursuant to § 13 demand the repayment of the Acquisition Price by submitting a duly completed Redemption Declaration via his Custodian to the Principal Paying Agent and transferring the Certificates to the account of Principal Paying Agent with the Clearing System in accordance with paragraph (2) above. The Issuer will refer to this effect in the notice.
4. As used in paragraphs (2) and (3) above, the "Acquisition Price" is the actual acquisition price paid by each Certificateholder (as stated and confirmed in the Redemption Declaration) or the arithmetic mean of the trading prices of the Certificates, as determined by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB), on the Banking Day preceding the declaration of contestation pursuant to paragraph (2) above, respectively, depending on which of these amounts is the higher one. If a Market Disruption pursuant to § 7 exists on the Banking Day preceding the declaration of contestation pursuant to paragraph (2) above, the last Banking Day preceding the contestation pursuant to paragraph (2) above on which no Market Disruption existed shall be decisive for the determination of the price in accordance with the preceding sentence.
5. The Issuer is entitled to correct or supplement incomplete provisions in the Terms and Conditions in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB). Only corrections and supplementations that are reasonable with regard to the interests of the Issuer and the Certificateholders and that in particular do not materially impair the legal and financial situation of the Certificateholders will be permitted. The Certificateholders will be informed of such corrections and supplementations pursuant to § 13.
6. If the Certificateholder was aware of typing or calculation errors or similar errors in the Terms and Conditions when purchasing the Certificates, the Issuer is entitled to adhere to the Terms and Conditions amended accordingly irrespective of paragraphs (2) to (5) above.

§ 17 (Applicable Law, Place of Performance, Place of Jurisdiction)

1. The Certificates, as to form and content, and all rights and obligations of the Issuer and the Certificateholder shall be governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.
2. Place of performance is Paris.
3. To the extent permitted by law, all legal disputes arising from or in connection with the matters governed by the terms and conditions of these Certificates shall be brought before the court in Munich.

Risk Factors

Before deciding to buy the Instruments described in these Final Terms, investors should carefully read these printed Final Terms, the Prospectus, together with any relevant supplements, and the Registration Document.

The risk factors stated on pages 69 ff of the Prospectus and pages 3 ff of the Registration Document, to which reference is hereby made and which should be carefully read by potential investors before taking any investment decision, apply to the Instruments described in these Final Terms. If applicable, potential investors should also take account of the additional risk factors described below which arise from the respective structure and/or from the respective Underlying of the Instruments described in these Final Terms and which are not contained in the prospectus.

The risk factors described are in no way intended to present a complete list of all the risks at the level of the Issuer, of the Instruments described in these Final Terms or of the respective Underlying and cannot take account of the individual situation of any potential investor.

In particular, this description is not to be understood as being a form of advice provided by the Issuer regarding the risks existing at the time when these Final Terms are published or existing at a later point in time on account of a change in circumstances. Potential investors should only consider investing in the Instruments described in these Final Terms if they have thoroughly discussed with their bank advisor, legal advisor, tax or accounting consultant and any other advisors: (i) the suitability of an investment in view of their personal financial, tax and other circumstances, (ii) the information contained in these Final Terms (particularly on the risks) and (iii) the influence of future changes in the Underlying.

Several risks might have simultaneous or cumulative effects in respect of the Instruments described in these Final Terms. It is not possible to foresee what effects any combined occurrence of individual risks might have on the value of the Instruments. Investors should therefore be experienced, have knowledge of transactions with instruments such as the Instruments described in these Final Terms and understand that the performance of Instruments depends on the performance of the respective Underlying. The Instruments described in these Final Terms are not suitable for inexperienced investors.

The sequence and detail of the description of the individual risk factors in the Final Terms, the Prospectus and the Registration Document allows no conclusion to be drawn about their economic effects or the probability with which a particular risk will occur.

Investors should only buy the Instruments described in these Final Terms if they can bear the risk of losing the capital invested including the transaction costs.

Specific Risks associated with LevDAXx4 (Total Return) EUR Index as Underlying

The LevDAXx4 (Total Return) Index is a leveraged index which aims to provide four times the daily percentage change in the level of the DAX[®] Index (the "Unleveraged Reference Index") less the cost of financing. Investors should pay particular attention to the fact that the daily percentage decreases in the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index will have four times that effect on the value of the Underlying and thus the value of the Certificates; this means that, the more the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index falls on a Calculation Date, the lower the value of the Underlying will be on that Calculation Date, with daily changes in relation to the Unleveraged Reference Index being intensified as a result of the leverage. Should the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index falls by 25% or more the Certificateholder would suffer a total loss.

Specific Risks associated with EUROSTOXX 50 Daily Leverage (Net Return) Index as Underlying

The EUROSTOXX 50 Daily Leverage (Net Return) Index is a leveraged index which aims to provide twice the daily percentage change in the level of the EUROSTOXX 50[®] Index (the "Unleveraged Reference Index"). Investors should pay particular attention to the fact that the daily percentage decreases in the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index will have twice that effect on the value of the Underlying and thus the value of the Certificates; this means that, the more the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index falls on a Calculation Date, the lower the value of the Underlying will be on that Calculation date, with daily changes in relation to the Unleveraged Reference Index being intensified as a result of the leverage. Should the value of the Unleveraged Reference Index falls by 50% or more the Certificateholder would suffer a total loss.
