SYNERGIE has acquired 100% of the capital of TIGLOO through its subsidiary DCS EASYWARE, a French digital services firm based in Lyon, in which SYNERGIE acquired a majority stake in June 2018.

Founded in Pamplona in 1985, TIGLOO mainly operates in Navarra and the Basque Country, and has recently expanded to the Madrid region; therefore, geographically it perfectly complements the DCS EASYWARE group, which is already present in Catalonia.

TIGLOO expects turnover in the region of €16 million in 2019 from around 500 clients. It employs approximately 150 people with a diverse range of qualifications and expertise.

With this acquisition, the digital solutions proposed by TIGLOO for intermediary-sized companies will help to broaden DCS EASYWARE's offering and bring its annual turnover to roughly €65 million.

This acquisition confirms SYNERGIE's positioning on a growth market and rounds off its traditional activities, in line with its main counterparts, by bolstering its digital services offering.
