the Zesto account in France in 2012, RCI Bank and Services' savings business has continued to grow and is available in seven countries: France, Germany (since 2013), Austria (2014), the United Kingdom (2015), Brazil (2019), Spain (2020) and now the Netherlands (via Raisin). At the end of December 2020, the net collected deposits of RCI Bank and Services totaled 20.5 billion euros or 43% of the company's net assets.

The Renault Bank offer is Raisin Netherlands' first French product and Raisin DS's 18th partner bank available in the Netherlands. With this new addition, Raisin.nl is the largest cross-border savings marketplace in the Netherlands, with the widest selection of partner banks and saving products on a Dutch deposit platform.

João Leandro, CEO of RCI Bank and Services

"Extending our savings activity, thanks to the launch of Renault Bank in the Netherlands, aligns with our goal of continuing to diversify RCI Bank and Services refinancing sources, without depending on just one source of liquidity. This partnership with Raisin also reinforces our continuous path of digital transformation to offer the best experience to our customers," explains João Leandro, CEO of RCI Bank and Services.

Dr. Tamaz Georgadze, Co-CEO Raisin DS

“RCI Bank and Services’ selection of Raisin DS as its partner of choice and market entry point for the Netherlands is a real vote of confidence in our business model and customer base. As a market leader, Raisin is perfectly positioned to deliver transparent, flexible access for all parties involved – for Renault Bank it means access to the Dutch market, and for Dutch consumers access to competitive options like the Renault Bank offer,” adds Raisin DS Co-CEO Dr. Tamaz Georgadze.

About Raisin DS

Raisin DS is a trailblazer for open banking in the deposits and investments space. The FinTech company provides an open banking infrastructure for the global $50+ trillion deposit market that benefits banks and savers alike. For savers, it means more product choice and decision power, customer-facing institutions like banks benefit from best-in-class savings marketplace solutions for their own customers, and deposit-taking banks receive better access to deposit funding. Raisin DS operates its own B2C platforms across Europe under the Raisin, WeltSparen, Savedo, and ZINSPILLOT brands, and in the U.S. under the brand SaveBetter. In Germany, in addition to savings products for retail and corporate clients, the company also offers ETF-based investment and pension products. Raisin DS collaborates with around 400 banks and financial services providers from more than 30 countries. The company is servicing over 550,000 direct customers. Raisin DS is backed by renowned international investors such as btov Ventures, Deutsche Bank, FinLab, Goldman Sachs, Greycroft, Headline/e.ventures, Index Ventures, Kinnevik, Orange Digital Ventures, PayPal Ventures, Thrive Capital, Top Tier Capital Partners, Ribbit Capital, and Vitruvian Partners, as well as Peter Thiel. The company has offices in Berlin, Frankfurt, Hamburg, London, Madrid, Manchester, Milan, New York, Paris, and Zurich. Raisin DS was formed by a merger of the FinTech companies Deposit Solutions and Raisin in June 2021. The merger only needs to be registered in the commercial register.
