PRESS RELEASE - JULY 3, 2024

Laure Delabeye appointed Director of Human Resources and Services at Wendel

Wendel announces the appointment of Laure Delabeye as Director of Human Resources and Services for the Wendel Group. In this role, she will be in charge of Human Resources, General Resources and IT services.

Biography of Laure Delabeye

After graduating from EFAP (École des nouveaux métiers de la communication) and IGS (Institut de Gestion Sociale), Laure Delabeye, 54 years old, worked over 25 years as Human Resources Director in French and international environments, mainly in the Finance and Insurance sectors.

Before joining Wendel, Laure spent 14 years as Human Resources Manager in AXA Group operating entities, supporting their transformation. Laure then joined the American bank JP Morgan as HR Director for France, before extending her responsibilities to Spain and Portugal. For 7 years, she acquired expertise in leading teams in multicultural and sensitive contexts, and dealt in particular with the impacts of Brexit from an HR point of view on a European level. From 2019 to 2021, Laure was Global Head of Human Resources for Natixis Investment Banking.

In 2021, Laure made a turning point in her career by becoming a certified coach (HEC Global International Executive coaching, ICF accredited). She set up Oyat Coachsulting to support senior executives facing new challenges.
