(1) The restatement of 2006 data, pursuant to IAS 19 (revised), had a positive impact of €17 million owing to the curtailment of the pension plan operated by DFL, a 50%-owned subsidiary of Nissan in China. This involved converting the plan from a defined-benefit to a defined-contribution scheme. As a result, Nissan's share in 2006 was €1,888 million.
