VILLAS CURV, FRANCE

Roche Bobois has partnered with French company Curv to design the interior of two circular, bioclimatic villas in the South of France. Conceived as haute couture creations – unique, tailored, eco-built – these villas will be located in Gordes, perched above the Luberon valley, and in Vence, high up in the French Riviera. This partnership demonstrates the brand's ability to contribute to ambitious projects with solutions that are at once technical, aesthetic and creative.
