The Articles of Association of the Company Covivio include in section 8.1 a clause imposing an obligation to declare crossing thresholds in addition to those relating to legal thresholds: "In addition to the legal obligation to notify the Company of the holding of certain fractions of the capital and to make any resultant declarations of intent, any physical person or legal entity, acting alone or in concert, who has come to hold or stops holding, directly or indirectly, at least one per cent (1%) of the Company's capital or voting rights, or any multiple of this percentage, must notify the Company, by registered post with proof of receipt request to the registered office within the period provided for in Article R. 233-1 of the French Commercial Code, also indicating the number of securities ultimately giving access to the share capital it holds, the number of related voting rights as well as all the information referred to in Article L. 233-7 I of the French Commercial Code. Mutual fund management firms must carry out such reporting for the entirety of the shares of the Company held by the funds that they manage.

This reporting obligation applies to all cases of exceeded thresholds mentioned above, including beyond the statutory and regulatory thresholds. Unless a declaration has been made under the conditions outlined above, shares above the fraction which should have been declared will have no voting rights attached for any General Meeting held within two (2) years after the date of regularisation of the declaration, at the request, recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting, of one or several shareholders together holding at least one per cent (1%) of the share capital.
