PRESS RELEASE

The Covéa Group advises that on 25 June 2026, the arbitration tribunal under the aegis of the Centre of Mediation and Arbitration of Paris (CMAP), issued its ruling for the litigation between the SCOR and Covéa groups regarding the two retrocession treaties concluded on 30 June 2021.

The arbitration tribunal decided that:

- SCOR has failed to comply with its pre-contractual and contractual obligations to provide information.
- In respect of compensation for the damages suffered by Covéa as a result of these breaches, SCOR should be deprived of the sums claimed against Covéa under the treaties until 31 December 2025, totalling USD 488,300,000.
- Once this damage has been compensated, the retrocession treaties will continue.

The Covéa Group takes note of this decision of the arbitration tribunal which awards compensation to Covéa in recognition of a breach by SCOR of its duties towards its counterparty.
