

Planisware recognized as a Leader in 2026 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Adaptive Project Management and Reporting, five years running

Paris, France, August 6, 2026 – Planisware, a leading provider of B2B AI-powered SaaS platforms serving the rapidly growing Project Economy, announces today it has been recognized as a Leader in the 2026 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Adaptive Project Management and Reporting (APMR).

This marks the fifth consecutive year Planisware has been recognized as a Leader in the Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Adaptive Project Management and Reporting. In Planisware's view, this recognition reflects its ongoing commitment to helping organizations reduce complexity while improving project visibility, strengthening governance, and supporting more informed decision-making across the business. With Planisware Orchestra, organizations can start quickly, establish consistent processes, and expand their project and portfolio management capabilities as their needs evolve. Planisware Orchestra: Start simple. Stay structured. Scale smart.

Recent innovations further extend Planisware Orchestra's support for organizations seeking to connect day-to-day execution with strategic priorities. Enhancements introduced since 2025 include Oscar, Planisware's embedded AI agent, which delivers portfolio intelligence, AI-powered project intake, and dynamic resource management. Additional innovations include drag-and-drop dashboard creation, expanded integration capabilities, and industry-specific starter packages designed to accelerate deployment and adoption.

"Organizations need a practical way to improve governance without slowing teams down," said Sylvain Bianchi, VP Mid-Market at Planisware. "Planisware Orchestra is designed to help customers get started quickly, structure their work more effectively, and progressively adopt more advanced capabilities as their needs evolve."

Antoine Villata, Chief Executive Officer Planisware North America, added: "Our continued investment in Planisware Orchestra reflects a clear ambition: to help organizations modernize project and portfolio management while preparing for the next stage of AI-enabled decision-making. We believe this recognition highlights the strength of our platform and our long-term commitment to customer value."
