

Stasher and Quadiant Partner to Launch Nationwide Luggage Storage Using UK Smart Locker Network

Paris, May 7, 2025

Quadiant (Euronext Paris: QDT), a global automation platform powering secure and sustainable business connections, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Stasher, the world's first luggage storage platform. This partnership marks a significant expansion of Stasher's UK network and will provide travelers in key cities throughout the UK, including London, Birmingham, York, Edinburgh, Newcastle, Cardiff and Manchester, with more convenient, secure, and accessible luggage storage options through more than 1,640 Parcel Pending by Quadiant smart lockers.

Gone are the days of dragging bags through crowded streets or waiting for hotel or travel check-in. Stasher offers hassle-free bag storage in 1,100+ cities worldwide, connecting travelers with a global network of trusted hotels, shops, and now Parcel Pending by Quadiant smart lockers in the UK. Backed by award-winning customer support and a 4.8/5 rating from over 1.2 million reviews, Stasher has become the go-to solution for travelers seeking flexibility and peace of mind.

The integration with Parcel Pending by Quadiant smart lockers marks a new chapter in convenience. Combining Stasher's seamless booking experience with Parcel Pending by Quadiant's secure and easy-to-use locker terminals, travelers will now enjoy even more flexible storage - perfect for early arrivals, late departures, and everything in between.

"We're excited to partner with Quadiant to grow our smart lockers footprint," said Oscar Thanoyannis, Commercial Director at Stasher. "This collaboration brings us closer to our mission: making travel easier, lighter and more enjoyable for everyone."

The partnership is further proof of Quadiant's commitment to offering a broad range of services that enhance urban last-mile logistics and consumer convenience. Open to all carriers and services, Parcel Pending by Quadiant open network lockers serve as local convenience hubs, offering secure, 24/7 access for deliveries, returns, exchanges, and item storage for services such as prescription pick up, retail click and collect, key exchange, and spare parts. Now, through this collaboration with Stasher, they will also operate as luggage storage hubs.

"We're proud to join forces with Stasher to extend the reach and functionality of our Parcel Pending by Quadiant smart locker network," said Katia Bourgeais-Crémel, EVP Parcel Locker Solutions Europe at Quadiant. "This partnership highlights the versatility of our lockers and our commitment to creating innovative, consumer-centric solutions that simplify everyday life—whether it's picking up a parcel or storing your luggage."

Quadiant is steadily expanding its smart locker network across key markets in the U.S., Japan, and Europe. With over 25,700 units currently installed worldwide, the company is well on its way toward its long-term objective of deploying 40,000 by 2030.
