Sfpi Group announces the appointment of Raphaël de Pazzis as Deputy Managing Director

The Board of Directors of Sfpi Group, meeting on 7 July 2026, decided to appoint Mr Raphaël de Pazzis as Deputy Managing Director, with immediate effect.

This appointment is in line with the Group's commitment to pursuing its development strategy and strengthening its governance in support of its ambitions for sustainable growth.

With over 27 years' experience in the agri-food industry and finance, Raphaël de Pazzis has held several senior management positions within major international groups, where he has successfully led projects focusing on transformation, international development and the improvement of operational performance.

At SFPI Group, his role will be to support the acceleration of the Group's development, assist the teams in implementing the strategic roadmap and continue to strengthen industrial, commercial and financial performance.

Sfpi Group confirms its financial and strategic objectives for the 2026 financial year.

Next financial announcement: September 2026
