Llama Group calls a shareholders' meeting to approve its name change to Winamp Group

The Board of Directors of Llama Group SA (Euronext Growth Paris & Brussels: ALLAM) announces its decision to submit to the Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders, to be held on 25 September 2025 at 10:00 a.m. at the company's headquarters in Brussels, a proposal to change the company's corporate name to Winamp Group SA.

The choice of the name Winamp Group is driven by several objectives:

- Leverage an iconic brand: Winamp is a globally recognized brand with unique reputation and legitimacy in the digital music industry.
- Strengthen international visibility: the new name will enhance the Group's recognition and attractiveness among artists, partners and investors worldwide.
- Align the identity of the parent company with its strategic project: by becoming Winamp Group, the company confirms its ambition to make Winamp the central platform of services for independent artists and creators.

Alexandre Saboundjian, CEO of Llama Group, commented:

"The name change to Winamp Group is part of the long-term vision we have for the company's development. Winamp is a strong brand, emblematic of the music industry, and it lies at the heart of our strategy. It is only natural that this identity should also be reflected at the level of our parent company and in our communication with investors. Our ambition is clear: to make the Winamp project the central and unifying project of the Group."

An official notice of meeting is published today on the various dedicated websites.
