SAINT-GOBAIN HAS SIGNED AN AGREEMENT FOR THE DIVESTMENT OF ITS PIPE BUSINESS IN LATIN AMERICA

Saint-Gobain announces that it has signed an agreement for the divestment of PAM Latin America, Saint-Gobain's water and pipeline infrastructure business in the region, with SNA, a subsidiary of the Brazilian company Tauá Partners.

PAM Latin America is present across the region, operating two plants in Brazil and commercial activities in Argentina and Chile. The business employs around 1,200 people with annual sales of around €170 million expected in 2026.

The transaction is subject to the relevant information processes and to the satisfaction of customary conditions and is expected to be finalized by the beginning of 2027.

This operation is part of Saint-Gobain's strategy to further optimize its business profile, in line with its "Lead & Grow" plan.
