Deezer named to Fast Company's annual list of the World's Most Innovative Companies

The global music experiences platform is rewarded for its innovative contributions to the global music industry including the introduction of the artist centric payment system for streaming

Paris, March 19, 2024 – Deezer (Paris Euronext: DEEZR) has been named to Fast Company's prestigious list of the World's Most Innovative Companies of 2024.

This year's list shines a spotlight on businesses that are shaping industry and culture through their innovations. These organizations are setting new standards and achieving remarkable milestones in all sectors of the economy. Deezer is named by Fast Company as one of the world's most innovative companies in the music category.

"Deezer has truly made its mark in the past year, continuing our legacy as a pioneer and innovator in the music industry and I'm very proud that we are recognized by Fast Company for our accomplishments," said Jeronimo Folgueira, CEO Deezer "By introducing the artist centric payment system we have initiated a new era in music streaming, putting focus back on the value of music, fairer pay for artists and fantastic fan experiences."

Deezer's introduction of the artist centric model in 2023 has been the catalyst for industry wide change, sparking the first major evolution of royalty payments since the inception of music streaming.

Deezer also sets itself apart as a key business partner to other global companies, making music experiences an essential part of their offering. Deezer's music experiences are available through partners in Latin America, Europe and in the United States. Recent significant partnerships include Meli+ in Brazil, Mexico and Chile, RTL+ in Germany and Sonos Radio/Radio HD in the US and multiple other markets.

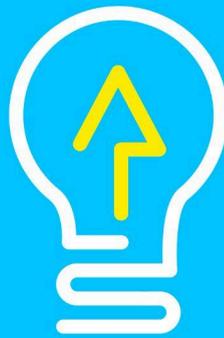

The World's Most Innovative Companies stands as Fast Company's hallmark franchise and one of its most anticipated editorial efforts of the year.
