

Jérôme Grivet appointed to Worldline Board of Directors, succeeding Olivier Gavalda

Paris, La Défense, April 24th, 2025

Worldline announces a change in its Board of Directors. Effective April 23, 2025, Olivier Gavalda will be succeeded by Jérôme Grivet as the representative of Crédit Agricole S.A. Jérôme Grivet also joins the Investment Committee.

Building on the valuable contributions of Olivier Gavalda, Jérôme Grivet brings an extensive experience and leadership that will significantly contribute to the Company's transformation path and strategic direction. His expertise in finance, corporate strategy, management and governance will be highly beneficial to the Group's governance framework.

Wilfried Verstraete, Chairman of Worldline, stated: "I am pleased to welcome Jérôme Grivet as the new representative for Crédit Agricole on Worldline's Board of Directors. With his substantial experience in finance and corporate strategy, including his current role as Deputy CEO of Crédit Agricole S.A. responsible for Steering and Control functions, he brings significant expertise and leadership to our Board. His strategic acumen, developed through years of leading major financial institutions, will be a valuable asset to Worldline's governance and future initiatives."

Biography

Currently Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole S.A. in charge of Steering and Control functions since September 2022 and Member of the Executive Committee of Crédit Agricole S.A.

Jérôme Grivet began his career in Administration.
