About KAUFMAN & BROAD

As a developer and urban planner, the Kaufman & Broad group works alongside and for regional authorities and its customers. Through its various subsidiaries, the group offers comprehensive expertise and 55 years of experience in the construction of apartment buildings, detached houses, managed housing (for students and seniors), shops, logistics platforms and office buildings.

The Group's employees share and believe in the conviction that Building is action! Acting for people by promoting health and community living, acting for the city by contributing to its attractiveness and development, and acting for the planet by reducing the daily carbon footprint of building construction and use.

All the operations developed by the group thus contribute positively to the ecological transition and innovate to create a more virtuous city.
