

Dovetail Games, a subsidiary of PULLUP Entertainment, announces the launch of Train Sim World 6, the latest edition of the ultimate train simulation series

PARIS, FRANCE – September 30th, 2025 – Dovetail Games, a subsidiary of PULLUP Entertainment Group (FR0012419307 - ALPUL), today announces the release of Train Sim World 6 on PC, PlayStation, and Xbox consoles. Since its first installment, the Train Sim World franchise has generated over €100 million in consumer spending, establishing itself as a benchmark in the railway simulation genre. This new opus introduces new trains as well as innovative features designed to deliver an even more immersive gameplay experience.

Listening closely to its player community and their feedback, the game now introduces Random Events, making every session unique and unpredictable. Players will face various unexpected incidents, requiring them to adapt their driving in real time. Finally, new expansions are already in development, highlighting the importance of Dovetail Games' live management strategy.
